Articles of Incorporation of WESTTOWN CHRISTIAN ACADEMY, INC.

The undersigned, Scott Meister, hereby organizes a non-profit corporation under the provisions of Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes and all acts amending thereby and to that end, certify as follows:

ARTICLE I NAME

The name of the Corporation is WESTTOWN CHRISTIAN ACADEMY, INC.

ARTICLE II
DURATION

The term of the Corporation is perpetual.

ARTICLE III
PURPOSES

1. Permitted Activities. The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding section of any future federal code, and specifically to conduct a preschool educational program in support of the ministry of Westtown Presbyterian Church. The Corporation shall have any and all lawful powers provided in Florida Statutes that are not in conflict with these Articles. This Corporation shall further be empowered to purchase, improve, rent, lease, own, mortgage, hold, enjoy, maintain, sell, and develop real estate and deal in real property of every description; to borrow money and contract debts, and to issue bonds, promissory notes or other obligations and evidences of indebtedness; and to do all and everything necessary and proper for the accomplishment of the objects enumerated herein or necessary or incidental to the specific powers

Code.

c. It shall not retain any "excess business holdings", as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code, which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by Section 4943(a) of the Code.

d. It shall not make any investment which would jeopardize the carrying out of any of its exempt purposes, within the meaning of Section 4944 of the Code, so as to give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by Section 4944(a) of the Code.

e. It shall not make any "taxable expenditures", as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code, which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by Section 4945(a) of the Code.

4. Dissolution. In the event of dissolution, the residual assets of the organization will be turned over to Westtown Presbyterian Church or one or more organizations which themselves are exempt as organizations described in Sections 501(c)(3) and 170(c)(2) of the Code or corresponding sections of any prior or future law, or to the Federal, State or local governments for exclusive public purposes as provided in Florida Statutes, Section 617.1406.

and privileges which are, can be, or may be granted to corporations under the laws of the State of Florida.

2. Prohibited Activities. This Corporation is not organized for a pecuniary profit. There shall be no power to issue certificates of stock or declare dividends and no part of the Corporation's earnings, assets or accumulations shall inure to the benefit of any member, director, officer or other private person, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Third hereof.

a. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, this Corporation will not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by:

(1) a corporation exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, (hereinafter referred to as the "Code") or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law, or

(2) a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or any other corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law.

b. In particular, the Board of Directors shall not, nor shall it allow members, subscribers, officers or employees of the Corporation to, on behalf of the corporation:

(1) Allow any part of the net earnings to inure to the benefit of a private individual including any member, director, officer or subscriber of this Corporation.

(2) Carry on propaganda or to attempt to lobby or influence legislation.

(3) Intervene in any political campaign or to endorse any candidate for public office.

3. Private Foundation Requirements. If this corporation is ever determined to be a "private foundation" as defined in Section 509 (and during the period it remains a private foundation), this Corporation shall or shall not do the following:

a. It shall distribute, for the purposes specified in its articles of incorporation, for each taxable year, amounts at least sufficient to avoid liability for the tax imposed by Section 4942(a).

b. It shall not engage in any act of "self-dealing", as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Code, which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by Section 4941(a) of the
