ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF IDF LIFE FOR A CHILD (USA), INC.

The undersigned hereby forms a corporation not for profit under Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes, and, for these purposes, does hereby adopt the following Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of the corporation shall be: IDF LIFE FOR A CHILD (USA), INC. (the "Corporation"), a Florida not for profit corporation.

ARTICLE II - PURPOSES

This Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The Corporation's specific purpose includes, but is not limited to, improving diabetes care for children and youth with diabetes in less-resourced countries, through strengthening diabetes care services in these countries.

In general, the Corporation shall do any and all acts and things, and exercise any and all powers which now or hereafter are lawful for the Corporation to do or exercise under and pursuant to the laws of the State of Florida for the purpose of accomplishing any of the purposes of the Corporation.

The purposes for which this Corporation is organized shall be limited to those which are strictly charitable. In no event shall this Corporation engage in any activity which would be contrary to the purposes and activities: (1) permitted to be engaged in by any organization the activities of which are exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986; or (2) of a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as hereafter amended, and the applicable rules and regulations thereunder.

No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future Federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding Section of any future Federal tax code, nor shall the Corporation engage in subversive activities.

H15000204960 3

The Corporation shall not be operated for the primary purpose of carrying on an unrelated trade or business as defined in Section 513 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as hereafter amended, and the applicable rules and regulations thereunder.

No compensation shall be paid to any officer, director, trustee, creator or organizer of the Corporation or substantial contributor to it, except as a reasonable allowance for services actually rendered to or for the Corporation. The Corporation is organized to serve public interests. Accordingly, it shall not be operated for the benefit of private interests.

The Corporation shall have the power to receive contributions and expend such monies for such purpose and make grants or distributions to any organization organized and operated exclusively for charitable, scientific, religious or educational purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code whether such organization is within or without the United States of America. To the extent such grants or distributions are made to an organization without the United States of America, the Corporation will retain control and discretion regarding the use of its grants or other financial assistance. The Corporation will accomplish these purposes as follows:

- The Corporation will select specific, worthy projects that are consistent with its charitable purposes and which will provide the greatest benefit and will review plans for such projects.
- The Corporation will provide grants and other financial assistance to those projects it selects.
- Assistance will be at the sole discretion and exclusive power of the Corporation.
- The Board of Directors or its designated committee(s) will review all requests for funds from other organizations and will require that such requests specify the use to which the funds will be put.
- The Board of Directors or its designated committee(s) will authorize payment to approved projects.
- The Board of Directors or its designated committee(s) will require the recipients to provide a periodic accounting of each project funded to show that the funds were expended for the purposes approved by the Board of Directors or its designated committee(s).
- The Board of Directors or its designated committee(s) may withdraw support to any project at any time if it so chooses and will refuse to accept solicited funds if they are earmarked in such a way that they must in any event go to support the selected project thereby negating the right of the Board of Directors or its designated committee(s) to withdraw support to any project.

ARTICLE III - POWERS

The Corporation shall have all the powers granted to not for profit corporations under the laws of the State of Florida which are necessary or convenient to effect any and all purposes for which the Corporation is organized. Subject to any applicable limitations, the Corporation shall have the power to receive, accept, use, hold, manage, and dispose of all types of real and personal property given, transferred, devised, or bequeathed to it, in trust or otherwise, for the purposes described above and for any purposes incidental thereto. In no event, however, shall the Corporation have or exercise any power which would cause it not to qualify as a tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) or Section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as hereafter amended, and the applicable rules and regulations thereunder; nor shall the Corporation engage directly or indirectly in any activity which would cause the loss of such qualification. No part of the assets or the net earnings, current or accumulated, of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any private individual.

ARTICLE IV - MEMBERS

This Corporation shall have no Members.

ARTICLE V - TERM OF EXISTENCE

The Corporation shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE VI - OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

The affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors and managed on a day-to-day basis by officers elected by a majority vote of the Board of Directors. The officers of the Corporation shall consist of a President, Secretary and Treasurer. Such other officers and assistant officers and agents (including but not limited to Assistant Secretaries and Assistant Treasurers) as may be deemed necessary may be elected or appointed by the Board of Directors from time to time. Each officer shall serve for a term of two (2) years, beginning the 1st day of the month immediately following his or her election by a majority of the Board of Directors at the annual meeting of the Board of Directors. Officers may be re-elected to serve subsequent terms.
