The Corporation is incorporated under the provisions of the Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act, as amended.

The Corporation is to be organized on a nonstock basis.

The Corporation shall have members with such rights and privileges as set forth in the Constitution and Bylaws.

The term of existence of the Corporation shall be perpetual.

The Corporation shall be governed by a Board of Trustees which shall consist of such numbers of trustees as may be fixed from time to time in the Constitution, but in no event shall the Board of Trustees of the Corporation consist of fewer than three (3) Trustees. The Trustees shall be appointed by the members of the Corporation for a term the duration of which shall be fixed in the By-laws of the Corporation. Subsequent elections of Trustees shall be held at the annual meeting of the Corporation with such election held under the appropriate provisions of the By-laws of the Corporation. In the event of a stalemate, a deciding vote will be cast by the Senior Pastor. In the event that a vacancy occurs during the term of any Trustee or Trustees on said Board of Trustees of this Corporation, whether caused by resignation, removal or death of any such Trustee or Trustees, or for any reason whatsoever, such vacancy shall be filled by an appointment for the remainder of such term by a majority vote carried by the members. Any Trustee or Trustees on said Board of Trustees of this Corporation may resign by delivering a written notice of such resignation to the Board of Trustees.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and its regulations, as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended. In addition, notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 of said Internal Revenue Code and its regulations, as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

Upon dissolution of the Corporation or the winding up of its affairs, the Board of Trustees shall, after making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the Corporation exclusively for the purposes of the Corporation in such manner to further the planting of churches in the West Florida District Council of the Assemblies of God as set forth in the By-laws, or in the event the West Florida District Council is not in existence, to such other organizations which are described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding provisions of any subsequent United States Internal Revenue law, as the Board of Trustees shall determine. Any assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located to such organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or in accordance with the corresponding provisions of any subsequent United States Internal Revenue law, and which are operated exclusively for Christian religious purposes to further the planting of churches in the West Florida District Council of the Assemblies of God, and whose purposes are nearest the purposes of The General Council of the Assemblies of God, as such court shall determine.
