ARTICLE II

Duration

This corporation shall commence existence on the date of the execution and acknowledgment of these Articles if permitted by law; if not, then on the date of filing. This Corporation shall exist perpetually thereafter, unless sooner dissolved according to law.

ARTICLE III

Purpose

The principal objective and purpose for which this Corporation is formed are as follows:

- A. To establish a not for profit organization for the purpose of providing education and awareness to the public about vocational education opportunities, citizenship responsibilities, about reducing drop-out rates, and teen pregnancies, i.e. the Educational Activities; to conduct the Educational Activities to the public, and to raise money to conduct the Educational Activities through donations, charitable contributions and other fund raising functions, to ultimately provide physical structure to house vocational schools and training centers for the purposes of providing and conducting the Educational Activities, Technology, housing, and farming awareness to the disadvantaged young adults and students with an emphasis on the educationally disadvantaged minority groups of South Florida and Haiti, and for related purposes ancillary thereto.

- B. The purposes for which the Corporation is organized are exclusively religious, charitable, scientific, literary and education within the meaning of Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (hereinafter the "Code") or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law.
- C. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation may be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of purposes set forth in this article.
- D. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.
- E. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these articles, this Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or the corresponding provisions of any future United States internal revenue law.
