ARTICLE III
Duration

The duration of the Corporation shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE IV
Purpose

- (a) To serve the community of Florida by providing affordable legal services.
- (b) To engage in any and all activities and pursuits, and to support or assist such other organizations, as may be reasonably related to the foregoing and following purposes.
- (c) The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as may be amended.
- (d) To solicit and receive contributions, purchase, own and sell real and personal property, to make contracts and invest corporate funds, to spend corporate funds for corporate purposes, to invest corporate funds, and to engage in any activity "in furtherance of, incidental to, or connected with any of the other purposes."

ARTICLE V
Manner of Election

The directors of the Corporation shall be elected in accordance with methods and qualifications specified in the bylaws of the Corporation. In no event, shall the number of directors be fewer than three.

ARTICLE VI
Powers

The powers of the Corporation shall be provided in the bylaws of the Corporation in accordance with Chapter 617, Florida Statutes with the following limitations within the meaning of §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as may amended:

(a) No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to its members, directors, officers or other private interests. However, the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered by its employees and to make payments and other distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article IV.

(b) No substantial amount of the activities of the Corporation shall be in furtherance of a purpose not set forth in Article IV.

(c) No substantial amount of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, within the meaning of §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as may be amended, unless the Corporation elects the provisions of § 501(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, as may amended.

(d) In no event shall the Corporation have the power to participate in, or intervene in, including the publishing or distributing of statements, any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office, all within the meaning of § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as may be amended.
