ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
TREE FARM RESIDENTIAL NEIGHBORHOOD ASSOCIATION, INC.
(A Florida Corporation Not-For-Profit)

The undersigned incorporator for the purpose of forming a Corporation not-for-profit under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes certifies as follows:

ARTICLE I NAME AND ADDRESS

The name of the corporation is Tree Farm Residential Neighborhood Association, Inc., (hereinafter referred to as the "Association"). The principal mailing address of the corporation is 600 Fifth Avenue South., Suite 207, Naples, Florida 34102.

ARTICLE II
DEFINITIONS

All terms which are defined in the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions for Tree Farm Residential Neighborhood (hereinafter referred to as the "Residential Neighborhood Declaration") shall be used herein with the same meaning as defined in said Declaration.

ARTICLE III
PURPOSE AND POWERS

The Association is organized and shall exist on a non-stock basis as a corporation not for profit under the laws of the State of Florida, and no portion of any earnings of the Association shall be distributed or inure to the private benefit of any member, director or officer of the Association. For the accomplishment of its purposes, the Association shall have all of the common law and statutory powers and duties of a corporation not for profit under the laws of the State of Florida, except as limited or modified by these Articles, the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions for Tree Farm Residential Neighborhood; and it shall have all of the powers and duties reasonably necessary to operate Tree Farm pursuant to the Tree Farm Residential Neighborhood Declaration as it may hereafter be amended, including, but not limited to, the following:

- A. To make and collect assessments against members of the Association to defray the costs, expenses and losses of the Association, and to use the proceeds of assessments in the exercise of its powers and duties.
- B. To maintain, repair, replace and operate the Association and Association property.

- C. To purchase insurance upon the Association property for the protection of the Association and its members.
- D. To purchase, lease, hold, sell, mortgage or otherwise acquire or dispose of, real or personal property, except to the extent restricted hereby; to enter into, make, perform or carryout contracts of every kind with any person, firm, corporation, association or other entity; to do any and all of the activities and pursue any and all of the objects and purposes set forth in these Articles and not forbidden by the Laws of the State of Florida.
- E. To hold all property deeded to the Association in trust for the use and benefit of its Members, except that this Association may dedicate, sell or transfer all or any part of any common areas to any public agency, authority or utility, for such purposes and subject to such conditions consistent with the Declaration. For so long as the Declarant is a Class B Member of the Association, no such dedication, sale or transfer shall be effective unless an instrument has been signed agreeing to such dedication, sale or transfer by the Declarant.
- F. To maintain, repair, replace, approve, operate and manage such common and private areas and structures as may be placed under the jurisdiction of this Association, including but not limited to: entrance roads and features, street lighting, lakes, landscaping, irrigation system, conservation areas and water management system approved by any governmental agency and drainage easements.
- G. To enter into agreements with the Tree Farm Master Association, if any, and if necessary, with respect to, but not limited by, those items listed in paragraph F. above.
- H. To reconstruct improvements after casualty and to make further improvements of the property.
- I. To make, amend and enforce reasonable rules and regulations governing the use of the common elements and the operation of the Association.
- J. To enforce the provisions of the Tree Farm Residential Neighborhood Declaration, these Articles, and the Bylaws of the Association.
- K. To contract for the management and maintenance of the Association and to delegate any powers and duties of the Association in connection therewith except such as are specifically required by the Tree Farm Residential Neighborhood Declaration to be exercised by the Board of Directors or the membership of the Association.

- L. To employ accountants, attorneys, architects, and other professional personnel to perform the services required for proper operation of the Association.
- M. To borrow money for any purpose, and to purchase units, and acquire, own, mortgage and convey real property.
- N. To enter into a contract with any individual or entity and employ personnel as may be selected by the Board of Directors to perform or accomplish any or all of the purposes of this Association, under such terms and conditions and for such compensation as the Board of Directors may consider in the best interest of the Association.
- O. To sue and be sued.

All funds and the title to all property acquired by the Association shall be held for the benefit of the members in accordance with the provisions of the Tree Farm Residential Neighborhood Association Declaration, these Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws.

ARTICLE IV PROHIBITION AGAINST ISSUANCE OF STOCK AND DISTRIBUTION OF INCOME

The Association shall never have nor issue any shares of stock, nor shall the Association distribute any part of its income, if any, to its members, directors or officers. All monies and title to all properties acquired by the Association and the proceeds thereof shall be held only for the benefit of the members in accordance with the provision of these Articles and the By-Laws of the Association. Nothing herein, however, shall be construed to prohibit the Association from conferring benefits upon its members or from making any payments or distributions to members of monies or properties pursuant to Section 617.011, Florida statutes, or a statute of similar import. The Association may, however, reimburse its directors, officers and members for expenses authorized and approved by the Board of Directors and incurred for and on behalf of the Association and may pay compensation in a reasonable amount to its directors, officers and members for actual services rendered to the Association as authorized and approved by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE V MEMBERSHIP

The initial member of the Association shall be Thomas S. Monaghan, Successor Trustee of the Tree Farm Land Trust, his successors or assigns (hereinafter referred to as the "Developer"), who shall be a Class B Member, and each Owner of a Parcel (as defined in the Tree Farm Residential Neighborhood Declaration) created within the Tree Farm Residential Neighborhood, each of which shall be a Class A Member. No other persons or entities shall be entitled to membership. The foregoing is not intended to include persons or entities that hold an interest merely as security for the performance of an obligation. Membership right and duties shall be subject to and controlled by the Declaration, which is in the form of a covenant running with the land.

ARTICLE VI

VOTING RIGHTS

A. The Association shall have two (2) classes of voting memberships:

- (i) Class A Members shall be all Members with the exception of the Declarant while the Declarant is a Class "B" Member, each of whom shall be entitled to one (1) vote for each Parcel owned.
- (ii) The Class B member shall be the Developer, who shall be entitled to three (3) times the total votes of the Class A Members plus one (1).

B. The By-laws may establish procedures for voting.

C. The Class B membership shall cease and convert to Class A membership, based upon Developer's ownership, upon the occurrence of the first to occur of the following events:

- (i) Three months after 90 per cent of the units in all phases of Tree Farm that will ultimately be operated by the Association have been conveyed to owners other than the Developer, his successors and/or assigns.
- (ii) Such other percentage of the parcels has been conveyed to owners, or such other event has occurred as is set forth in the Declaration or these Articles in order to comply with the requirements of any governmental chartered entity with regard to the mortgage financing of parcels.
- (iii) Upon the Developer abandoning or deserting its responsibilities to maintain and complete the amenities or infrastructure as disclosed in the governing documents. There is a rebuttable presumption that the developer has abandoned and deserted the property if the Developer has unpaid assessments or guaranteed amounts under Fla. Stat. §720.308 for a period of more than 2 years.
- (iv) Upon the Developer filing a petition seeking protection under chapter 7 of the Federal Bankruptcy Code.
- (v) Upon a receiver for the Developer being appointed by a circuit Court and not being discharged within 30 days after such appointment, unless the court determines within 30 days after such appointment that the transfer of control would be detrimental to the association or its members.

D. For purposes of this Article, the term "members other than the Developer" shall not include builders, contractors, or others who purchase a parcel for the purpose of constructing improvements thereon for resale.

On the Turnover Date, Class A Members, including Declarant, shall assume control of the Association and elect not less than a majority of the Board.

E. The designation of different classes of membership are for purposes of establishing the number of votes applicable to certain Lots or Parcels, and nothing herein shall be deemed to require voting solely by an individual class on any matter which requires the vote of Members, unless otherwise specifically set forth in the Tree Farm Residential Neighborhood Documents.

F. No Member may assign, hypothecate or transfer in any manner his or her membership in the Association except as an appurtenance to his or her Lot or Parcel.

ARTICLE VII TERM

The term of the Association shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE VIII BYLAWS

The Bylaws of the Association may be altered, amended, or rescinded in the manner provided therein.

ARTICLE IX DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

A. The affairs of the Association shall be managed by a Board of Directors consisting of the number provided by the Bylaws, but not less than three (3), and in the absence of such determination shall consist of three (3) directors.

B. The initial Directors of the Association shall be appointed by the Developer, and the Developer shall continue to appoint either all of the Directors or if the Association is subject to the provisions of Florida Statute 718.301 a majority of the Directors consistent with Florida Statute 718.301 until transfer of Association control to the members, other than Developer.

C. Prior to turnover of control all Directors shall be appointed by the Developer. Each Director to be appointed by a Member shall be appointed by the Board of Directors of such Member. Except for the Directors appointed by the Developer, all Directors of the Association must be members of the Member which elected such Director.

D. Any vacancies in the Board of Directors shall be appointed by the Developer if the vacating Director was appointed by the Director, or be elected by the Member from which such vacating Director was elected.

E. At the time the members are entitled to elect at least a majority of the board of directors of the homeowners' association, the developer shall, at the developer's expense, within no more than 90 days deliver the following documents to the board:

- (a) All deeds to common property owned by the association.
- (b) The original of the association's declarations of covenants and restrictions.
- (c) A certified copy of the articles of incorporation of the association.
- (d) A copy of the bylaws.
- (e) The minute books, including all minutes.
- (f) The books and records of the association.
- (g) Policies, rules, and regulations, if any, which have been adopted.
- (h) Resignations of directors who are required to resign because the developer is required to relinquish control of the association.
- (i) The financial records of the association from the date of incorporation through the date of turnover.
- (j) All association funds and control thereof.
- (k) All tangible property of the association.
- (l) A copy of all contracts which may be in force with the association as one of the parties.
- (m) A list of the names and addresses and telephone numbers of all contractors, subcontractors, or others in the current employ of the association.
- (n) Any and all insurance policies in effect.
- (o) Any permits issued to the association by governmental entities.
- (p) Any and all warranties in effect.

ARTICLE XII
INDEMNIFICATION

To the fullest extent permitted by Florida law, the Association shall indemnify and hold harmless every Director and every officer of the Association against all expenses and liabilities, including attorneys fees, actually and reasonably incurred by or imposed on him in connection with any legal proceeding (or settlement or appeal of such proceeding) to which he may a party because of his being or having been a Director or officer of the Association. The foregoing right of indemnification shall not be available if a judgment or other final adjudication establishes that his actions or omissions to act were material to the cause adjudicated and involved:

- A. Willful misconduct or a conscious disregard for the best interests of the Association, in a proceeding by or in the right of the Association to procure a judgment in its favor.
- B. A violation of criminal law, unless the director or officer had no reasonable cause to believe his action was unlawful or had reasonable cause to believe his action was lawful.
- C. A transaction from which the Director or officer derived an improper personal benefit.
- D. Wrongful conduct by Directors or officers appointed by the Developer, in a proceeding brought by or on behalf of the Association.

In the event of a settlement, the right to indemnification shall not apply unless the Board of Directors approves such settlement as being in the best interests of the Association. The foregoing rights of indemnification shall be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights to which a Director or officer may be entitled.
