ARTICLE III

The purpose of this corporation is to equip the African American community in the area of apologetics. This is achieved through the corporation's website, workshops, symposiums, blogs, and media (podcast, videos, etc.). The primary mission is to help the Christian community know what they believe and why they believe it.

The corporation shall engage only in apologetic activities that uphold values and a commitment to orthodox Christian theology, including but not limited to sexuality, gender, and marriage.

No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign (including the publication or distribution of statements) on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Section 2. PROPERTY:

The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to religious purposes and no part of the net income or assets of this corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any private person. Upon the dissolution or winding up of the corporation, its assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities for this corporation shall be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation, or corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for religious purposes and which has established its tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The President shall make the final determination of how remaining assets are distributed.

Section 3. RIGHTS TO ASSETS:

No member of the Board except the Founder shall possess any property right in or to any property of the corporation, including intellectual property and the likeness of the corporation. The Founder shall have exclusive rights to all of the corporation's intellectual property notwithstanding separate legally binding contracts.

Section 4. OFFICES:

The corporation's principal office shall be fixed and located in the State of Florida at such place as the Board of Directors (herein called the "Board") shall determine. The Board is granted full power and authority to change said principal office from one location to another with majority approval. The corporation shall designate a registered office in accordance with Florida law and shall maintain it continuously.

Branch or subordinate offices may be established at any time by the majority of the Board with president voting in the affirmative.
