The undersigned Diontavius Dominick Burton is acting as incorporator of a nonprofit corporation under the Florida Statutes 617.1006 adopts the following articles of incorporation:

Article I: Name

The name of this corporation shall be: ECCENTRIC INCISOR INC.

Article II: Principal Office

The place in this state where the principal office of the corporation is to be located is 1150 10th Avenue South, St. Petersburg, Florida 33705, Pinellas County.

Article III: Detailed Description of Purposes

(a) The specific and primary purposes for which this corporation is formed are as follows: This corporation is organized exclusively for charitable purposes or for religious purposes or for scientific purposes or for literary or educational purposes specifically for the advancement, support and encouragement to expose and enlighten communities through oral health education for at risk children and young adults through various means such as, but not limited to, promoting public awareness concerning oral health and allowing accessibility to oral health services in school, and communities, including, for such purpose or purposes the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(b) The general purposes for which this corporation is formed are as follows:

(1) To acquire or otherwise, own, and enjoy in fee simple, or otherwise, any personal, real or mixed property necessary for the uses and purposes of this corporation; and to dispose of the same at the pleasure of the corporation and for the users and purposes for which this corporation is formed.

(2) To enter into all lawful contracts and obligations essential or convenient for the transaction of the affairs of the corporation and to borrow money and issue notes, bills and evidence of indebtedness or mortgage, as the corporation may deem advisable, within the limits approved by its bylaws, and do any other thing necessary, suitable and proper for the accomplishment of any objects specified here or which may at any time appear conducive to or expedient for the interests or benefits of this corporation or its members.

(3) To expand monies received, collected or earned by this corporation from all sources for the payment and discharge of all costs and obligations incurred by the corporation in carrying out the purposes for which this corporation is formed.

(4) To do all lawful things and acts which this corporation at any time shall, in the discretion of the directors deem to be in the best interest of the members and to pay all costs and expenses in connection with these acts.

Article IV: Duration

The corporation shall have perpetual duration.

Article V: Tax Exemption Requirements

(a) The corporation is organized and operated exclusively for the purposes set forth herein.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign (including the publishing or distribution of statements on behalf of any candidate for public office).

Article VI: Restrictions on Private Foundations

Notwithstanding any other provision in these Articles, if this corporation is deemed or determined to be a "private foundation" within the meaning of section 509 of the Internal Revenue Code, then this corporation shall be subject to the following limitations and restrictions:

(a) The corporation shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(b) The corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article IX: Board of Directors

The powers of this corporation shall be exercised, its property controlled, and its affairs conducted, by a Board of Directors. The number of directors of the corporation shall be three; provided, however, that the number of directors can be changed by a bylaw duly adopted pursuant to the bylaws of this corporation. The directors named in these articles as the first Board of Directors shall hold office until the first meeting of members to be held on a future date at 1150 10th Avenue South, St. Petersburg, Florida 33705, at which time an election of directors shall be held.

Directors elected at the first annual meeting and at all times thereafter shall serve for a term of one year until the second annual meeting of members following the election of directors and until the qualification of their successors in office.

Annual meetings shall be held at 12:00noon on June 3rd of each year at the principal office of the corporation or as such other places as the Board of Directors may designate from time to time by resolution.

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors under any provision of law may be taken without a meeting if all the members of the Board individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceeding of the Board. Such action by written consent will have the same force and effect as if taken by unanimous vote of the directors. Any certificate or other document filed under any provision of law relating to actions so taken must state that the action was taken by unanimous written consent of the Board of Directors without a meeting and that the articles of incorporation and bylaws of this corporation authorize the directors to so act. Such a statement shall be prima facie evidence of such authority.
