ARTICLE IV. MANNER OF ELECTION

The manner in which the directors/trustees are elected and appointed shall be governed by the provisions of the By-laws of the corporation.

ARTICLE V. DUTIES OF THE TRUSTEES

The business and property of the corporation shall be managed by a Board of Trustees. The present Trustees now duly constituted and elected shall constitute the Board of Trustees and they shall hold their offices indefinitely and so far as may be until their lifestyle deems otherwise. In the event of the inability of any trustee to act, or in the event of the death of any trustee, the remaining trustees shall elect another trustee, or trustees, to fill the vacancy or vacancies, thus created. Each trustee shall be a member in good standing of the corporation and shall have the following powers and authority:

(a). The trustees in their collective capacity shall be known as the Corporate Board of Trustees and under that name shall constitute the governing body, and shall conduct and transact all business of the corporation.

(b). The trustees shall have the power and authority to hold an annual meeting of the Board of Trustees and may likewise hold special meetings as may be determined by the Board of Trustees. The annual meeting, if and when held, shall be held at the offices of the Corporation in Florida on the first Monday of February, in each year at the hour of 7:00 PM of such day, or as soon thereafter in each year as is possible for the trustees to call such meeting; and any special meetings may be held at such time and place as the trustees may determine.

(c). The Board of Trustees shall have and is hereby given power and authority to provide for the qualifications and requirements for membership for the local congregations which without doctrinal provisions or terminology shall primarily require a belief in the Christian religion and in salvation of men through faith in the shed blood of Jesus Christ as the only atonement made for sin, and in the Godhead, and the Church as one Spiritual body made up of all true believers and shall provide the means and manner of admission of membership, which admission shall be free of charge therefore, and shall likewise provide means for suspension from its membership

(d). The Board of Trustees shall have authority and power, which is hereby given, to provide suitable and proper means and religious ceremony and required tests and qualifications for entrance into the ministry of this organization, hereby being established and organized, by and through the means as established and administered that any and all applicants may be inducted into the ministry thereby license, commission, or full ordination with all church authority possible for any church or ecclesiastical body to be given or to possess or to administer, giving therein authority to administer all sacred services of ecclesiastical bodies and to include all sacred and sacramental services, and to further include the marriage services and together with the sacred services of baptism.

(e). The Board of Trustees shall have the authority and power, which is hereby given, to establish, institute, operate and maintain local churches and all such additional departments, associations, institutions, schools, mission stations, programs, and/or any and all such other vehicles as may be deemed appropriate and advisable by said Board of Trustees for the propagation of the Gospel of any and all Christian and religious worship within the United States of America and/or in any other country.

(f). The Board of Trustees shall have the power and authority to negotiate or designate agents to negotiate all of the business transactions, all receipts and all disbursements, for any such additional departments, associations, institutions, schools, mission stations, programs, and/or any and all such other vehicles established or instituted by this corporation.

(g). A majority of the trustees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction by the Board of Trustees of any and all business, in accordance to the laws of the State of Florida.
