organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Abuelos Foundation's mission is to provide our senior citizen community with cost-saving home improvements and beautification; provide them compassion; advocate for their needs within local government, while introducing youth to seniors' needs, giving them real-world experiences, building leadership skills and appreciation to public service. We are a tri-generational foundation: us, our parents and our kids help at every step of the way, teaching our kids to love public service as much as we do.
