RE: No Intention To Reinstate Doc # N13000004247

To Whom It May Concern,

I, Dan Carless Jr., have no intention of reinstating Document # N13000004247 of which I have recently dissolved.

Kathy/Cathy and other reps I spoke to confirmed to me that I could dissolve Doc. # N13000004247 electronically then apply for a new Corporation with the same name by writing this letter and I could use the same name for this new Corporation.

Thank you for your wonderful help and assistance through this process. You all are wonderful!!

Sincerely,

Dan Carless Jr.

Article 4- Not For Profit

The Corporation is a not for profit corporation under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes. The Corporation is not formed for pecuniary profit. No part of the income or assets of the Corporation is distributable to or for the benefit of its directors or officers, except to the extent permissible under these articles, under law and under 26 U.S.C.A. S 501 (c) (3) (referred to below as 'code'). If the Corporation ever has members, no member shall have any vested right, interest of privilege in or to the assets, income or property of the Corporation and no part of the income or assets of the Corporation shall be distributable to or for the benefit of its members, except to the extent permissible under these Articles, under law and under 26 U.S.C.A. S 501(c) (3).

Article 5- Duration

The duration of the Corporation is perpetual unless dissolved by law.

Article 6- Purposes

The Corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) to educate, teach, and other services which may include a ministry center to individuals and families within the community for their well-being and in order to create strategic partnerships between individual and corporate volunteers and organizations that work toward community well-being and that provide critical services to the community. The Corporation will be available to provide various services to individuals, families, and organizations within the community. The Corporation may also provide other services in the area of community well-being as determined by the Corporation's board of directors and that further the Corporation's charitable and educational purposes.

To promote overall health and wellbeing in a holistic manner in our local communities, we will also focus on the need for participants and recipients to have adequate housing in which a nurturing family environment can exist. We intend to be agents of change ourselves to underserved communities by establishing partnerships with local developers to foster the development and management of affordable housing, which will allow continuing and more dynamic influence at a core level and not just an outside programmatic benefit. We will operate under the tenet that quality influencers coupled with a safe and nurturing home environment can be transformational both socially and economically for distressed neighborhoods like the ones we intend to serve.

Over time we will seek to create and strengthen partnerships with existing organizations and new organizations within the community to be a part of a redistribution of energy for the purpose of meaningful and lasting change. Our work with individuals and children will also lead to work with families as a whole in the provision of services and resources.

Article 7- Powers

Solely for the above purposes, the Corporation shall have the following powers:

- A. To exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida on nonprofit corporations, including but not limited to those set forth in Florida Statutes Chapter 617 and the following powers: to acquire by bequest, devise, gift, grant, donation, contribution, purchase, lease or otherwise any property of any sort or nature without limitation as to its amount or value, and to hold, invest, reinvest, manage, use, apply, employ, sell, expand, disburse, lease, mortgage, convey, option, donate or otherwise dispose of the property and the income, principal and proceeds of the property.

- B. To engage in and transact any other lawful activity, solely in furtherance of the above purposes, for which nonprofit corporations may be incorporated under the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act, and any successor or amendment to the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act.
- C. To do any other things as are incidental to the powers of the Corporation or necessary or desirable in order to accomplish the purposes of the Corporation.

Article 8- Limitations

1. The Corporation will distribute its income for each tax year at such a time and in such a manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by 26 U.S.C.A. 4942, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
2. The Corporation will not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in 26 U.S.C.A. 4943 (c), or the corresponding section of any future federal revenue code.
3. The Corporation will not retain any excess business holding as defined in 26 U.S.C.A. 4943 (c), or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
4. The Corporation will not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under 26 U.S.C.A. 4944, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
5. The Corporation will not make any taxable expenditure as defined in 26 U.S.C.A. 4945(d), or the corresponding section of any future federal revenue code.
6. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure directly or indirectly to the benefit of or be distributable to its members (If the Corporation ever has any), directors or officers, but the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article 6 (Purposes) of these Articles.

Article 9- Tax Exempt Status

It is intended that the Corporation shall have and continue to have the status of a corporation that is exempt from federal income taxation 26 U.S.C.A. 501(a) as an organization described in 26 U.S.C.A. 501(c)(3). These articles shall be construed accordingly, and all powers and activities of the Corporation shall be limited accordingly. The Corporation shall not carry on propaganda or otherwise attempt to influence legislation to such an extent as would result in the loss of exemption under 26 U.S.C.A. 501(c)(3). All references in these articles to sections of the Internal Revenue Code shall be considered references to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as from time to time amended, and to the corresponding provisions of any similar law subsequently enacted.

Article 10- Dissolution

On the dissolution of the Corporation, the board of directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, distribute all of the assets of the Corporation exclusively for charitable, scientific or educational purposes in such manner to such directors shall determine. Any of the assets not so distributed shall be distributed in accordance with the direction of any court having jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for the above purposes of the Corporation or to a qualified organization or organizations as the court shall determine. For purposes of this article, an organization is a 'qualified organization' only if, at the time of receiving the assets, it is operated exclusively for the purposes described in 26 U.S.C.A. 170(c)(1) or 26 U.S.C.A. 170(c)(2)(b)(b) and it described in 26 U.S.C.A. 509a1, (2) or (3).
