Article IX

(see attached)

ARTICLE IX
CHARITABLE ORGANIZATION PROVISIONS:

Notwithstanding any powers granted to the Corporation by its Articles, Bylaws or by the laws of the State of Florida, the following limitations of power shall apply:

- (a) The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Code"). The Corporation intends at all times to qualify and remain qualified as exempt from federal income tax.
- (b) No part of the net earnings or assets of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, officers or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for the services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purpose set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, that Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under Code Section 501(c)(3) ; or (ii) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Code Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Service Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
- (c) In any taxable year in which the Corporation is a private foundation as described in Section 509(a) of the Code, the Corporation shall distribute its income for such period at such time and manner as not to subject it to tax under Section 4942 of the Code, and the Corporation shall not (A) engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 404(d) of the Code, (B) retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code, (C) make any investments in such manner as to subject the corporation to tax under section 4944 of the Code, (D) make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(f) of the Code or (E) engage in any excess benefits transactions as defined in Section 4958(c) of the Code or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.
- (d) Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, all remaining assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes, or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
