rejected filing - corrective information

Dear Sir/Madam

The Florida Department of State rejected the Articles of Incorporation that that were submitted on 4/20/16 with regard to above referenced entity. I was told on the telephone that the document was rejected because it did not contain a valid address for its "principal place of business".

The correction has been made. The updated Articles of Incorporation are enclosed. Please let me know if additional information is needed.

Sincerely yours

John M. Little
