ARTICLE 15 - LIABILITIES FOR DEBTS

Neither the members nor the past or present Directors/Trustees of the Board/Officers of the Corporation shall be personally liable for the acts, debts, liability and any other obligations of this Corporation.

ARTICLE 16 - INDEMNIFICATION

The Corporation shall indemnify a director or officer of the Corporation who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any proceeding to which the director or officer was a party because the director or the officer is or was a director or officer of the Corporation against reasonable attorney fees and expenses incurred by the director or officer in connection with the proceeding. The Corporation may indemnify an individual made a party to a proceeding because the individual is or was a director, officer or employee or agent of the Corporation against liability if authorized in specific case after determination, in the manner required by the board of directors, that indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agent as the case may be, is permissible in the circumstances because the director, officer, employee or agent has met the standard code of conduct set forth by the board of directors. The indemnification and advancement of attorney fees and expenses for directors, officers, employees and agents of the Corporation shall apply when such persons are serving at the Corporation's request while the director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, as the case may be, as director, officer, as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another foreign or domestic Corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, whether or not for profit, as well as in their official capacity with the Corporation. The Corporation also may pay or reimburse the reasonable attorney fees and expenses incurred by a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding. The corporation also may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual arising from the individual's status as a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify the individual against the same liability under the law. All references in these Articles of incorporation are deemed to include any amendment or successor hereto. Nothing contained in these Articles of incorporation shall limit or preclude the exercise of any right relating to indemnification or advance of attorney fees and expenses to any such person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or the ability of the corporation otherwise to indemnify or advance expenses to any such person by contract or in any other manner. If any word, clause or sentence of the foregoing provisions regarding indemnification or advancement of the attorney fees or expenses shall be held invalid as contrary to law or public policy, it shall be severable and the provisions remaining shall not be otherwise affected. All references in these Articles of incorporation to "director", "officer", "employee" and "agent" shall include the heirs, estates, executors, administrators and personal representatives of such persons.

ARTICLE 17 - DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS

Upon dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all the liabilities in the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purpose of the corporation, in such manner, or in such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for the charitable, education, religious, literary or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction in the country in which the principle office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purpose or to such organization or organizations as such court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
