CLASS B: The Class B member shall be the Developer. The Class B member shall be entitled to one vote more than the total number of votes held by Class A members, provided that Class B membership shall cease and terminate no later than the earlier of the following events:

ARTICLE VII.

The affairs of the Association shall be managed by a Board of Directors. The first Board of Directors shall consist of two Directors. So long as the Developer shall have the right under the Declaration to appoint a majority of the Board of Directors. Directors need not be members of the Association. Thereafter, all Directors shall be members of the Association.

Elections shall be by plurality of votes. At the first annual election of the Board of Directors, the term of office of the other elected Director receiving the highest plurality of votes shall be established at two (2) years, and the term of office of the other elected Directors shall be established at (1) year. The number of Directors of the succeeding Board shall be as provided from time to time by the By-Laws of the Association. The term of the Directors so elected or appointed at each annual election shall be for two (2) years expiring at the effect of the annual election following their election and thereafter until their successors are duly elected and qualified, or until removed from office with or without cause by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members which elected or appointed them. In no event can a Board member appointed by the Class B Member be removed except by action of the Class B Member. President: ARISTIDES DE ARMAS, JR.

ARTICLE X.

The Association shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE XI

1. The Board of Directors shall adopt By-Laws consistent with these Articles. Thereafter, such By-Laws may be altered or rescinded only in the manner provided in the said By-Laws.

2. These Articles of Incorporation may be altered, amended or repealed by resolution of the Board of Directors. No amendment affecting the Developer, its successors or assigns, as Developer of PRINCETONIAN TOWNHOMES Community shall be effective without the prior written consent of the Developer or its successors or assigns.

ARTICLE XII

1. The Association hereby indemnifies any Director or officer made a party of or threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding:

A. Whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, other than one by or in the right of the Association to procure a judgment in its favor, brought to impose a liability or penalty on such person for an act alleged to have been committed by such person in his capacity as Director or officer of the Association, or in his capacity as Director or officer of the Association, or in his capacity as Director, officer, employee or agent of any other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise which he served at the request of the Association, against judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement and reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and necessarily incurred as a result of such action, suit or proceeding or any appeal therein. If such person acted in good faith in the reasonable belief that such action was in the best interests of the Association, and in criminal actions or proceedings, without reasonable ground for belief that such action was unlawful. The termination of any such action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not in itself create a presumption that any such Director or officer did not act in good faith in the reasonable belief that such action was in the best interests of the Association or that he had reasonable grounds for belief that such action was unlawful.

B. By or in the right of the Association to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of his being or having been a Director or officer of the Association, or by reason of his being or having been a Director, officer, employee or agent of any other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise which he served at the request of the Association, against the reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action, or in connection with an appeal therein. If such person acted in good faith in the reasonable belief that such action was in the best interests of the Association. Such person shall not be entitled to indemnification in relation to matters to which such person has been adjudged to have been guilty of negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty of the Association unless, and only to the extent that the court, administrative agency, or investigative body before which such action, suit or proceeding is held shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability, but in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fully and reasonably entitled to indemnification for such expense which such tribunal shall deem proper.

2. The Board of Directors shall determine whether amounts for which a Director or officer seeks indemnification were properly incurred and whether such Director or officer acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Association, and whether, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he had no reasonable ground for belief that such action was unlawful. Such determination shall be made by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of Directors who were not parties to such action, suit, or proceeding.

3. The foregoing rights of indemnification shall not be deemed to limit in any way the powers of the Association to indemnify under applicable law.

ARTICLE XIII.

No contract or transaction between the Association and one or more of its Directors or officers, or between the Association and any other corporation, partnership, association, or other organization in which one or more of its Directors or officers are Directors or officers, or have a financial interest, shall be invalid, void or voidable solely for this reason, or solely because the Director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the Board or Committee thereof which authorized the contract or the transaction, or solely because his or their votes are counted for such purpose. No Director or officer of the Association shall incur liability by reason of the fact that he is or may be interested in any such contract or transaction.

ARTICLE XIV.

The Board of Directors shall elect the President, Secretary and Treasurer; and as many Vice-Presidents, Assistant Secretaries and Assistant Treasurers as the Board of Directors may determine. The President shall be elected from among the members of the Board of Directors, but no other officer need be a Director. The same person may hold two offices, the duties of which are not incompatible; provided, however, although two or more offices may be held by the same person, the offices of President and Secretary shall not be held by the same person.

ARTICLE XV.

Upon dissolution of the Association, all of its assets remaining after provision for creditors and payment of all costs and expenses of such dissolution shall be distributed in the following manner:

1. Real property, if any, contributed to the Association without receipt of other than nominal consideration by the Class B Member (of its predecessor in interest) shall be returned to the Class B Member (whether or not there is a Class B Member at the time of such dissolution), unless it refuses to accept the conveyance (in whole or in part).

2. Dedication to any applicable municipal or other governmental authority of any property determined by the Board of Directors of the Association to be appropriate for such dedication and which the authority is willing to accept.

3. Remaining assets shall be distributed among the members, subject to the limitation set forth below, as tenants in common, each members' share of the assets to be determined in accordance with its voting rights.

4. Upon expiration of the term of the Declaration, the Association may be dissolved upon a resolution to that effect being recommended by three-fourths (3/4) of the members of the Board of Directors, and, if such decree be necessary at the time of dissolution, after receipt of any appropriate decrees as set forth in Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes, or statute of similar import, and approved by two-thirds (2/3) of the voting rights of the Association's members.

ARTICLE XVI.

By-Laws of the Association may be altered, amended or repealed by a majority of votes of the Directors present at a duly constituted meeting of the Board of Directors, except that no amendment affecting the Developer shall be effective without the Developer's written consent, or as otherwise provided in the By-Laws.
