SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE FLORIDA

Article I
Name

1.01 Name

The name of this Corporation is the Center for Children's Rights, Inc. (the "Corporation")

Article II
Duration

2.01 Duration

The period of duration of the Corporation perpetual.

Article III
Purpose

3.01 Purpose

The Corporation is a not-for-profit Corporation and operates exclusively for educational and charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section(s) of any future Federal tax code.

The Corporation's purpose is to advance public policy, enhance legal advocacy, and secure the human rights of children, youth, and emerging adults. The Corporation seeks to provide children, youth, and emerging adults with capable delinquency, criminal, and civil legal representation in administrative and quasi-judicial proceedings. The Corporation will endeavor to analyze the impact of existing community policies affecting the lives of children, youth, and emerging adults; advocate for policies to improve the health, development, and the overall quality of life of such persons; educate, train, and inspire child advocates to recognize and serve the needs of vulnerable children; and include children, youth, and emerging adult voices and participation in the development, research, and implementation of the Corporation's policies, training and advocacy initiatives.

To maximize the Corporation's impact on current efforts, the Corporation may seek to collaborate with other not-for-profit organizations that fall under the 501(c)(3) section of Internal Revenue Code and are operated exclusively for educational and charitable purposes.

At times, per the discretion of the Board of Directors, the Corporation may provide internships or volunteer opportunities, which will provide opportunities for involvement in said activities and programs, in order to have a greater impact for change.

Article IV

Non-Profit Nature

4.01 Non-profit Nature

The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding sections of any future federal tax code. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation is authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this document, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by any organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, corresponding section of any future federal tax code or (b) by an organization, to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, the corresponding section(s) of any future federal tax code.

The Corporation is not organized and must not be operated for the private gain of any person. The property of the Corporation is irrevocably dedicated to its educational and charitable purposes. No part of the assets, receipts, or net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to any individual. The Corporation may, however, pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, and make other payments and distributions consistent with these articles.

4.02 Personal Liability

No officer, director, or incorporator of this Corporation will be personally liable for the debt obligations of the Corporation of any nature whatsoever, nor will any of the property or assets of the officers or directors be subject to the payment of the debt obligations of this Corporation.

4.03 Dissolution

Upon termination or dissolution of the Corporation, any assets willfully available for distribution may be distributed to one or more qualifying organizations described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or described in any corresponding provision of any successor statute) which organization or organizations have a charitable purpose which, at least generally, includes a purpose similar to the terminating or dissolving corporation.

The organization to receive the assets of the Corporation hereunder shall be selected by a majority of the managing body of the Corporation, and if its members cannot so agree, then the recipient organization may be selected pursuant to a verified petition in equity filed in a court of proper jurisdiction against the Corporation by one or more of its managing body, which verified petition will contain such statements that reasonably indicate the applicability of this section. Upon finding this section is applicable, the court may select the qualifying organization or organizations to receive the assets to be distributed, given preference if practicable to organizations located within state of Florida.

In the event that the court finds that this section is applicable but that there is no qualifying organization known to it which has a charitable purpose, which, at least generally, includes a purpose similar to this corporation, then the court shall direct the distribution of its assets lawfully available for distribution to the Treasurer of the State of Florida to be added to the general fund.

4.03 Prohibited Distributions

No part of the net earnings, or properties of this Corporation, on dissolution or otherwise, shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers or other private person or individual, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III, Section 3.01.

4.04 Restricted Activities

No substantial part of the Corporation's activities may be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene (including the publishing or distribution of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

4.05 Prohibited Activities

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (I) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax as an organization described by Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (II) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article V

Board of Directors
