[illegible]

Amendment to
ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
(Not for Profit)
of
Center for Autistic Achievement, Inc.

Article III - Purpose

The specific purposes for which the corporation is organized are as follows:

- A. To provide an environment for adults with autism spectrum disorder to learn skills, strategies and solutions that promote personal and professional achievement, accountability, self-advocacy and independence.
- B. To develop and provide programs and services in furtherance of the goal in paragraph A. above.
- C. To solicit and receive funds for the accomplishment of the above purposes.
- D. To promote and support the professionals and others who serve our constituency and who promote and support the core values of the Corporation.
- E. To seek collaborations to further the objectives delineated in paragraph A. above.

The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes under Section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

In the event the corporation should be dissolved and the work abandoned, all title to any real or personal property then owned by the corporation that remains after its debts and other liabilities have been satisfied, shall be transferred to other local organizations that are qualified under section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code and serve the same population as the corporation.

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except as otherwise provide by Section 501(h) of the Internal Revenue Code), and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in these articles.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (1) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)3 or the internal Revenue Code or (3) by a corporation contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)2 of the internal Revenue Code.

The corporation shall have perpetual existence.
