Articles of Incorporation
Big Shoes and Cleats for Teen Athletes, Inc.

Exhibit A

ARTICLE III: The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

The specific purposes for which the Corporation is organized include, but are not limited to, providing extended-size athletic shoes, sizes 12 and larger, to adolescent youth for participation in sports program activities that encourage development of life skills such as initiative, respect, and teamwork; to make any gift or gifts to other corporations or associations organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes similar to the purposes of the Corporation as may be selected from time to time by the Board of Directors of the Corporation; and generally to carry on either alone or in cooperation with others any and all activities in furtherance of one or more of the said purposes.

The Corporation shall possess all authority permitted by law; however:

1. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof;
2. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on or propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including by the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office;
3. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
4. No member, officer, or director of the Corporation shall be personally liable for the debts or obligations of this corporation of any nature whatsoever, nor shall any of the property of the members, officers, or directors be subject to the payment of the debts or obligations of this corporation.

Upon the dissolution, termination, or winding up of the Corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
