Article III PURPOSE

In furtherance, and not in limitation of the general powers conferred by the laws of the State, the Corporation shall have the following purposes and powers, it being expressly provided that enumeration of its specific powers shall not be construed in any way to limit or restrict in any way the general powers of the Corporation:

1. To function as a non-profit organization whose general purpose is to provide a range of local and national programs and services;
2. To mobilize resources needed to assist helping people obtain sustainability in their personal lives outside of public assistance, particularly for young women;
3. To provide educational opportunities, human needs assistance, recreational opportunities, life skills and character education, and family support services (eg. food, shelter, clothing, career development, academic support and job placement), particularly for unwed mothers and their children;
4. To promote academic excellence, particularly in the STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics) focused curriculums, especially in the area of mathematics;
5. To support good physical, emotional, and spiritual health, especially among young women;

6. To promote and support collaboration among service organizations, businesses, the faith community, and others for the purpose of forming alliances that will help to eliminate duplication of services and broaden service networks in order to meet the needs of more people through more effective program and service; and
7. To serve as an advocate for disadvantaged people, such as those in need of safe, decent affordable housing, the indigent, persons affected by disasters, and others, by engaging in the identification of unmet needs and the development of agendas, programs and services designed to meet them.

The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any section of any future federal tax code (the "Code"), and for such purposes, the Corporation may engage in any lawful act or activity for which a corporation may be organized as a nonprofit corporation.

No part of the property or net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or to be distributable to the Corporation's directors, officers or any private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in these Articles. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
