RE: Nonprofit Application (signatures for Registered Agent and Incorporator Document #: W1600049980

Dear Ms Fason:

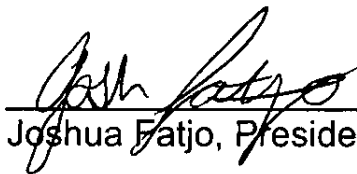

In speaking with Ms. Henderson from your office, I realized that the rejection for my nonprofit organization was due to my not signing for the Registered Agent and the Incorporator. She suggested that I sign the proper places and re-send the entire document to your attention — which I have enclosed with this cover letter.

I trust that this will satisfy my filing. Should there be any concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me by phone or e-mail.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

I look forward to seeing my organization listed on sunbiz.org with the attached document image.

Sincerely,

Joshua Fatjo, President, The One Life Organization, Inc.

Division of Corporations Articles Attachments

Purpose:

Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. This non-profit corporation will have all the powers as stated in Section 617.021, Florida Statutes 1991 and all acts amendatory thereof, including the Corporation's registration with the internal Revenue Service as a 501(c)(3) - 59-135-8912. To establish and maintain charitable purposes as an institution providing services primarily for residents of Florida.

The purpose of our organization is to bring awareness, support, education and service to individuals who seek to help raise awareness about and solutions for issues facing our nation in education, our environment and our businesses. To this end, we will work with civil rights groups, educational centers and recycling firms to enhance the research needed to raise awareness of these issues, find solutions, promote essential tools that foster growth in education and strengthen our renewable assets through environmental "green" programs.

Our activities will include advocacy center where individuals can learn about the current issues, research that is being done and results achieved. They will also learn what they can do to participate in programs on which we have compiled data and that need volunteers. Our goals include finding opportunities where volunteers who participate in these programs can obtain support for their personal needs. Our educational programs will focus on strengthening the family unit, bolstering environmental programs and establishing youth programs that provide tools and guidance and employment opportunities to combat juvenile delinquency.

Our organizational hope is to eliminate WASTE — that is: waste in our environmental and waste in our use of time, money and resources.

Dissolution of Corporation

Upon dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors will dispose of the assets of the Corporation in such a manner, or to such organizations operated for charitable purposes as will qualify at the time as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the IRS code, or the law in effect at the time. Upon winding up and dissolution of this Corporation, after paying or adequately providing for the debts and obligations of the Corporation, if the named beneficiary at the time of dissolution may not be qualified, may not be in existence, or may be unwilling or unable to accept the assets of the dissolving organization, the remaining assets will be distributed to a non-profit fund, foundation, or Corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, and scientific purposes and which has established its tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Moreover, upon the dissolution of the organization, assets that have not been distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Conflict Of Interest

No officer, Director, or member of the Corporation will have a direct or indirect financial interest in the Corporation's interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might result in a possible excess benefit transaction. This policy, which has been adopted by resolution of the governing board, is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.

Article IV - The manner in which the directors are elected and appointed:

Elections will be held at the annual meeting in November. Nomination for all positions may be made from the floor, but only with express consent of the person or persons nominated. From a slate of nominees presented at the November meeting of the Corporation, the Board of Directors will elect from its membership the Executive Committee of the Board, comprised of the President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and one (1) additional member at large. Each member of the Executive Committee will serve two consecutive two year terms and may be elected to successive terms without limit. Any vacancies occurring on this Committee may be filled by the Board of Directors.

The Executive Committee will have all the power and authority of the Board of Directors in the interim between regular Board meetings, and its acts, by majority vote of the entire membership of the Executive Committee will be binding upon the Corporation; provided, however the Executive Committee will exercise this authority only with respect of those matters deemed by the President or by a majority of the Executive Committee, to be of sufficient importance to require a decision and action prior to the next regularly scheduled meeting of the Board of Directors. The Executive Committee will recommend action by the Board of Directors with respect to any matter affecting the Corporation.

An affirmative vote of a majority of the Board of Directors present quorum and attending will be required to elect officers, board members, and to remove from office a trustee or officer for cause deemed sufficient by those voting for such removal.

Any member of the Board of Directors, who will have three (3) unexcused absences from regularly scheduled meetings of the Board in any fiscal year, will automatically be dropped as a member of the Board. Absences may be excused for just cause and may be registered in person orally, in writing, by telephone or email prior to such meetings.
