AMENDING ARTICLE III: The specific purpose for which this corporation is organized is:

The corporation is a Church and shall operate exclusively for religious, charitable, educational and other purposes within the meaning of section 501(c) (3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (hereinafter "Code"). As a means of accomplishing the foregoing purposes, The corporation shall have the power to engage in any lawful act or activity necessary or appropriate to the attainment of those purposes; provided, however, that notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Bylaws, or any other provision of law, the corporation shall not have the power to carry on any activities which would cause it to fail to qualify, or to fail to continue to qualify, as (i) an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (c)(3) of the Code, or (ii) an organization to which contributions are deductible under section 170(c)2 of the Code.

ADDING ARTICLE VIII: Other Provisions:

No part of the net earnings of the corporations shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to any private individual or person; provided, however, that the corporation may pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to it and reimbursement of expenses reasonably incurred on its behalf.

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes."
