Division of Corporations Articles AttachmentsPurpose:

Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. This non-profit corporation will have all the powers as stated in Section 617.021, Florida Statutes 1991 and all acts amendatory thereof, including the Corporation's registration with the internal Revenue Service as a 501(c)(3) - 59-135-8912. To establish and maintain charitable purposes as an institution providing services primarily for residents of Florida.

Our purpose is to fulfill the needs of our community by providing a warm & safe environment in which its seniors can maintain the social, educational facts of their daily lives, continuing to enhance the community and to provide professional care with dignity compassion and respect for all in support that population in our community who financially are not capable of securing this assistance.

Our nonprofit foundation will support of the existing adult day facility, Springs Daycare for adults. This foundation will be primarily devoted to providing necessary daily life needs and education to provide these socioeconomically and geographically underserved outpatient community of Charlotte County with the following services and activities.

- Transportation to and from the center.
- Nutritious meals during the day.
- Cognitive stimulation services, including help with rehabilitation programming.
- Personal care support, such as personal hygiene and grooming.
- Medication monitoring and administration with appropriate hydration.
- Social activities, including organized groups and outings.
- Supervision of seniors who may wander, such as those with cognitive and memory impairments
- Recreational Activities
- Family Counseling referrals
- Respite Care
- Arts and crafts, Sing-along, dance and storytelling
- Bingo, cards, and other mentally challenging games
- Low impact exercise

- Holiday and Religious celebrations for those who have request.

Our foundation will review all applicants for support who are at 200% of federal poverty level (FPL) or lower. At present, these needy patients are being treated, but at the expense of the paying patients. Each applicant will complete an application that will support his/her indigent status per our income calculation. All costs for participation in the program will be monitored monthly and will be at no cost to these participants. Our activities scheduled will change depending upon the needed costs to keep the program operating.

In the future, our activities with the needy community with grow through word of mouth, meetings with the Civic Association, health care clinics within the community. Our plan is to regularly reach out (advertise and market) these activities monthly to ensure ongoing understanding of our services within the community. The nonprofit activities will not charge any fees to this population, but will solicit donations from the community, customers of the for profit clinic, local businesses, and grant opportunities where and when possible.

Dissolution of Corporation

Upon dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors will dispose of the assets of the Corporation in such a manner, or to such organizations operated for charitable purposes as will qualify at the time as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the IRS code, or the law in effect at the time. Upon winding up and dissolution of this Corporation, after paying or adequately providing for the debts and obligations of the Corporation, if the named beneficiary at the time of dissolution may not be qualified, may not be in existence, or may be unwilling or unable to accept the assets of the dissolving organization, the remaining assets will be distributed to a non-profit fund, foundation, or Corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, and scientific purposes and which has established its tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Moreover, upon the dissolution of the organization, assets that have not been distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Conflict of Interest

No officer, Director, or member of the Corporation will have a direct or indirect financial interest in the Corporation's interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might result in a possible excess benefit transaction. This policy, which has been adopted by resolution of the governing board, is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.

Article IV - The manner in which the directors are elected and appointed:

Elections will be held at the annual meeting in November. Nomination for all positions may be made from the floor, but only with express consent of the person or persons nominated. From a slate of nominees presented at the November meeting of the Corporation, the Board of Directors will elect from its membership the Executive Committee of the Board, comprised of the President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and one (1) additional member at large. Each member of the Executive Committee will serve two consecutive two year terms and may be elected to successive terms without limit. Any vacancies occurring on this Committee may be filled by the Board of Directors.

The Executive Committee will have all the power and authority of the Board of Directors in the interim between regular Board meetings, and its acts, by majority vote of the entire membership of the Executive Committee will be binding upon the Corporation; provided, however the Executive Committee will exercise this authority only with respect of those matters deemed by the President or by a majority of the Executive Committee, to be of sufficient importance to require a decision and action prior to the next regularly scheduled meeting of the Board of Directors. The Executive Committee will recommend action by the Board of Directors with respect to any matter affecting the Corporation.

An affirmative vote of a majority of the Board of Directors present quorum and attending will be required to elect officers, board members, and to remove from office a trustee or officer for cause deemed sufficient by those voting for such removal.

Any member of the Board of Directors, who will have three (3) unexcused absences from regularly scheduled meetings of the Board in any fiscal year, will automatically be dropped as a member of the Board. Absences may be excused for just cause and may be registered in person orally, in writing, by telephone or email prior to such meetings.
