ARTICLE III PURPOSE

The corporation is organized exclusively for the charitable purpose of developing, operating and providing affordable children's day care services to members of the community, to meet the needs of children ages ranging from one (1) to six (6) years, providing age-appropriated indoor and outdoor play, rest periods, nutritious meals, and supervision in a safe environment.

The objectives(s) for which the corporation is formed are to provide affordable child day care services for the economically and financially disadvantaged who are not able to afford such services in their community and to lessen the burden of government.

To work in collaboration with relevant government agencies and other non-governmental organizations to ensure that these children have access to healthcare and other support services.

ARTICLE IV MANNER OF ELECTION

The directors shall be elected by members of the organization at each annual meeting to hold office until the next annual meeting. Each director shall hold office until the expiration of the term for which he or she was elected and until his or her successor has been elected.

ARTICLE IX ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS:

The following does not alter or expand the purposes or powers stated in Paragraph 3 herein. If this corporation files an application for recognition of exemption under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, the following provisions shall apply:

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law) or (b) by a charitable organization contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law).

Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of any member, trustee, director, officer of the corporation, or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the corporation), and no member, trustee, officer of the corporation, or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets in the dissolution of the corporation.

No part of the activities of the corporation shall be carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except as otherwise provided by IRS section 501(h) on participating in, or intervening in (including the publication or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of any candidates for public office.

Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of subject to an order of a Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

In any taxable year in which the corporation is a private foundation as described in section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1989, the corporation shall distribute its income for the said period at such times and manner as not to subject it to tax under Section 4942 of the Code and the corporation shall not (a) engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Code (b) retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code (c) make any investments in such manner as to subject the corporation to tax under section 4944 of the Code or (d) make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code.
