Attachment to Articles of Incorporation

Article VIII

Community Greening Corp (the "Corporation") is a nonprofit organization organized exclusively for charitable, scientific, literary, religious and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code").

Article IX

In furtherance of the foregoing, the purpose of the Corporation is to undertake such acts and carry on such business and affairs as may be permitted for nonprofit corporations under the laws of the State of Florida (the "Nonprofit Corporation Laws") and the laws of the United States of America in order to accomplish the purposes set forth in these Articles of incorporation.

Article X

Notwithstanding any provision of these Articles of Incorporation or any provisions of applicable state law, the Corporation shall not have the power to carry on any activities the existence of which would cause it to fail to qualify as an organization exempt from tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

Article XI

The Corporation shall not have any capital stock.

Article XII

The Corporation shall have no members.

Article XIII

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to approve and reimburse reasonable expenses incurred on its behalf and to pay reasonable compensation for

Article XVI

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all the assets of the Corporation exclusively for the exempt purposes of the Corporation to such other organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, scientific, literary, religious and educational purposes which at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or any successor provision of the Code, as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any assets not so distributed by the Board of Directors shall be distributed by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the Corporation's principal office is then located exclusively for the Corporation's exempt purposes. No director or officer of the Corporation or any private individual or entity related to the foregoing shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any corporate assets upon the dissolution of the Corporation.

Article XVII

This Corporation reserves the right at any time, and from time to time, to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in the Articles of Incorporation, and to add other provisions to the Articles of Incorporation authorized by the laws of the State of Florida, at the time such laws are in force, by a majority vote or other percentage as specified in the Bylaws, of the members of the Board of Directors, the governing body of the Corporation, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by law; and all rights, preferences and privileges of whatsoever nature conferred upon the governing body, its members, the directors or any other persons whomsoever by and pursuant to the Articles of Incorporation in its present form or as hereafter amended are granted subject to the rights reserved in this paragraph; provided, however, that no amendment, alteration, change or repeal of any provisions of the Articles of Incorporation shall authorize the Board of Directors to conduct the affairs of the Corporation in any manner or for any purpose which would cause the Corporation to lose its tax-exempt status under the provisions of the Code or any future United States Internal Revenue laws. In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida, the Board of Directors is expressly authorized and empowered to adopt, amend, and repeal the Bylaws of the Corporation.
