Articles of Incorporation of South Atlantic Fishermen, Inc.

The undersigned, a majority of whom are citizens of the United States, desiring to form a Non-Profit Corporation under the Non-Profit Corporation Law of Florida in compliance with Chapter 617, F.S., do hereby certify:

First: The name of the Corporation shall be South Atlantic Fishermen, Inc.

Second: The place in this state where the principal office of the Corporation is to be located: 35250 S.W. 177th Court, #9, Homestead, FL 33034

Third: Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The purpose of the corporation is to combine science and experience to ensure sustainable fisheries in the South Atlantic region for all recreational, charter, and commercial fishermen by creating greater collaboration between experienced fishermen in all three sectors and the agencies managing our fish stocks to create sensible fishery regulations.

Fourth: The manner in which the directors are elected and appointed is elected by a majority vote of the Board of Directors at regular meetings of the Board, or, in the case of vacancies, as soon thereafter as is convenient.

Fifth: The names and addresses of the persons who are the initial directors of the corporation are as follows:

Name _____ Address _____

Name _____ Address _____

Name _____ Address _____

Sixth: The name and Florida street address of the registered agent is:

Name: Jonathan Reynolds Address: 35250 S.W. 177th Court, #9, Homestead, FL 33034

Seventh: The name and address of the Incorporator is:

Name: Jonathan Reynolds Address: 35250 S.W. 177th Court, #9, Homestead, FL 33034

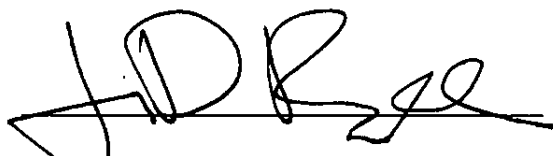

Eighth: No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Third hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Ninth: Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto subscribed our names this day of August 25, 2016.

Having been named as registered agent to accept service of process for the above stated corporation at the place designated in this certificate, I am familiar with and accept the appointment as registered agent and agree to act in this capacity
