However, because of legal issues and our own personal beliefs, we have to turn away those who have injured with intent, the innocent children of the world. We also do not take in those who show cruelty towards the innocent animals of the world. But we will give them a day supply of food, an umbrella, a fresh set of clean clothes, and Bible and a prayer, and wait for them to find God and peace within themselves, and accept them into the mission when they do, which is often the same day, and we are happy.
