ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
BLAKE BORTLES FOUNDATION, INC.
In compliance with Chapter 617 F.S. (Not for Profit)

The undersigned incorporator, for the purpose of forming a Florida not-for-profit corporation, hereby adopts the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I NAME

The name of the corporation shall be Blake Bortles Foundation, Inc.

ARTICLE II PRINCIPAL OFFICE

The street address of the principal office of the corporation is 9526 Argyle Forest Blvd., Ste. B2, #314, Jacksonville, Florida 32222. The mailing address is the same.

ARTICLE III PURPOSES

The specific purposes for which the corporation is organized are to conduct charitable and educational activities to support children with intellectual and developmental challenges in their pursuit of full, independent lives; to support first responders to improve their ability to safely carry out their vital lifesaving work; to assist current and future generations in activities pertinent to such purposes; and to make distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, provided, however, that the corporation shall not engage in any activity which, in the opinion of the corporation's Board of Directors, would jeopardize the federal income tax exemption of the corporation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE IV BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The affairs of the corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors at all times consisting of at least three (3) individuals. The manner in which directors are elected or appointed is as provided for in the bylaws.

ARTICLE VIII NOT-FOR-PROFIT

The corporation is not-for-profit and shall act under the applicable laws of the State of Florida governing such corporations. The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and/or scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth herein. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE IX DISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Having been named as registered agent to accept service of process for the above stated corporation at the place designated in this certificate, I am familiar with and accept the appointment as registered agent and agree to act in this capacity.
