ARTICLE 3

The Corporation shall make no distribution of income to its members, directors or officers.

ARTICLE 4

The powers of the Corporation shall include and be governed by the following provisions:

1. The Corporation shall have all of the common law and statutory powers of a corporation not for profit not in conflict with the terms of these Articles.

2. (e) To reconstruct improvements after casualty and to make further improvements of the Condominium Property as provided in the Declaration.

(f) To make and amend reasonable regulations respecting the use of the Condominium Property.

(g) To approve or disapprove the alteration and/or improvement of Units as may be provided by the Declaration and the By-Laws.

3. All funds and the titles of all properties acquired by the Corporation and their proceeds shall be held in trust for the members in accordance with the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium, these Articles of Incorporation and the By-Laws.

4. The powers of the Corporation shall be subject to and shall be exercised in accordance with the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium and the By-Laws.

ARTICLE 5

The qualifications of members, the manner of their admission to membership, termination of such membership and voting by members shall be as follows:

1. All Unit Owners shall be members of the Corporation, and no other persons or entities shall be entitled to membership, except as provided in Paragraph 5 of Article 5 hereof.

2. Membership shall be established by the acquisition of title to a Unit in the Condominium, whether by conveyance, devise, judicial decree or otherwise, and the membership of any party shall be automatically terminated upon his being divested of all title to the Unit, except that nothing herein contained shall be construed as terminating the membership of any party who may own two or more Units, so long as such party shall retain title to a Unit.

3. The interest of a member in the funds and assets of the Corporation cannot be assigned, hypothecated or transferred in any manner, except as an appurtenance to the Unit. The funds and assets of the Corporation shall belong solely to the Corporation, subject to the limitation that the same be expended, held or used for the benefit of the membership and for the purposes authorized herein, in the Declaration of Condominium, and in the By-Laws which may be hereafter adopted.

4. On all matters on which the membership shall be entitled to vote, each Unit shall have that number of votes set forth in the Declaration, but all such votes must be cast in the same manner (e.g. if a Unit has 50 votes, it must cast the 50 votes as if it were one vote, but for purposes of determining approval, the weight will be that of 50 votes). The votes of a Unit may be exercised or cast by the owner or owners of each Unit in such manner as may be provided in the By-Laws hereafter adopted by the Corporation. Should any member own more than one Unit, such member shall be entitled to execute or cast as many votes as apply to his Units (and may vote differently the votes of each Unit), in the manner provided by said By-Laws.

5. Until such time as the property described in Article 2 herein, and the improvements which may be hereafter constructed thereon, are submitted to a plan of Condominium ownership by the recordation of said Declaration of Condominium, the membership of the Corporation shall be comprised of the subscribers to these Articles, each of which subscribers shall be entitled to cast one vote on all matters on which the membership shall be entitled to vote.

ARTICLE 6

The Corporation shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE 7

The officers holding the offices designated by the By-Laws shall administer the business and affairs of the Association. The officers shall be elected by the Board of Directors of the Association at its first meeting following the annual meeting of the Members of the Association and shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may employ a Managing Agent and/or such other managerial and supervisory personnel or entities to administer or assist in the administration of the operation and management of the Condominium, and the affairs of the Corporation, and any such person or entity may be so employed without regard to whether such person or entity is a member of the Corporation or a director or officer of the Corporation, or an affiliate of any of them, as the case may be.

ARTICLE 8

1. The number of members of the first Board of Directors of the Corporation shall be three (3). The number of members of succeeding Boards of Directors shall be as provided from time to time by the By-Laws of the Corporation. The members of the Board of Directors shall be elected by the members of the Corporation at the Annual Meeting of the membership as provided by the By-Laws of the Corporation, and need not be members of the Corporation. So long as Developer owns both Condominium Units in the Condominium, the Developer shall have the right to elect the entire Board of Directors. Upon the sale of either Unit in the Condominium, the Directors shall be elected as follows:

- a. The owner of Unit A shall be entitled to elect one director.
- b. The owner of Unit B shall be entitled to elect one director.
- c. The third director shall be elected by vote of the majority in interest of the members.

2. While the Developer owns any Units in the Condominium, none of the following actions may be taken without approval in writing by the Developer:

- a. Assessment of the Developer as a Unit Owner for capital improvements.
- b. Any action by the Association that would be detrimental to the sales of Units by the Developer.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, no amendment to these Articles, the Declaration of Condominium, the Bylaws or any other condominium document shall be adopted which in any way shall limit the complete and absolute right of the Developer to determine, at its sole discretion, to whom and on what terms and conditions a Unit is to be sold and to make such sale and thereafter convey the Unit without procuring the approval of (a) this Association or its Officers or Board of Directors, or (b) the members of this Association or the owners of the Condominium Units, or (c) any parties whomsoever. The rights reserved to the Developer under this Article 8 (2) shall only apply to units owned by the Developer.

3. The qualifications for membership in the Board of Directors and the manner in which vacancies in the Board shall be filled shall be as set forth in the Bylaws of the Association, subject however to the right of each unit owner to fill any vacancy created in the Board of Directors by the death, resignation or removal of a Director elected by such unit owner with another Director elected by the same unit owner.

4. At the time the unit owners, other than the Developer, elect a majority of the member of the Board of Directors, the Developer shall relinquish control of the Association and the unit owners shall accept control. At such time, the Developer shall deliver to the Association those items required by the Act.

ARTICLE 9

The Board of Directors may elect a President, Secretary and Treasurer; and, as many Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries and Assistant Treasurers as the Board of Directors may determine. The President shall be elected from among the membership of the Board of Directors, but no other officer need be a Director. The same person may hold two offices, the duties of which are not incompatible; provided, however, that the office of President and Vice President shall not be held by the same person, nor shall the office of President and Secretary or Assistant Secretary be held by the same person.
