Articles of Incorporation of Daughters of Abraham, Incorporated

The undersigned, a majority of whom are citizens of the United States, desiring to form a Non-Profit Corporation under the Non-Profit Corporation Law of Florida, do hereby certify:

First: The name of the Corporation shall be Daughters of Abraham, Incorporated.

✓ Second: The place in this state where the principal office of the Corporation is to be located is 7930 N. Nobhill Road, Suite 108, in the City of Tamarac, Broward County.

Third: Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. Daughters of Abraham will provide services to the underserved population including housing, empowerment, life skills, education and employment skills. We will also provide lawn service for single moms and summer camp for underprivileged youth. We will provide a food kitchen and mentoring services.

Fourth: The names and addresses of the persons who are the initial trustees of the corporation are as follows:

Karen Worthey – Secretary – 9168 Geneva Street, Spring Hill Drive, FL 34608

✓ Jeremiah Brooks– President – 1651 NW 15th Avenue, Pompano, FL 33069

✓ Gregory King Jr. – Treasurer - 1651 NW 15th Avenue, Pompano, FL 33069

✓ Wallace King – Director – 1651 NW 15th Avenue, Pompano, FL 33069

Jewette Wynn – Director – 2681 S. Course Drive, Apt. 811, Pompano Beach, FL 33069

Fifth: No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Third hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

If reference to federal law in articles of incorporation imposes a limitation that is invalid in your state, you may wish to substitute the following for the last sentence of the preceding paragraph: "Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation."

Sixth: Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Seventh: The method of selection of the Board of Directors and number of directors shall be stated in the bylaws:
