Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under the section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The business activity for said organization is as follows: We promote the 3 major wrestling disciplines practiced throughout the world, Folkstyle/Scholastic, Freestyle and Greco-Roman. Our commitment to this is by sponsoring local, state, and national wrestling clinics and tournaments and exchanges for age group (i.e., 14 years and younger) and high school amateur wrestlers. These wrestling goals will afford amateur athletes, often those with limited or no means to advance their skills and to create interest and participate in competitions they may otherwise not be able to attend.

We strive to give athletes knowledge through training, opportunity through assistance and character through challenge. Teaching them to deal with winning and losing. Teaching honesty and good sportsmanship to reinforce leadership and transform their lives and reflect the high standards of honor and dignity, which characterizes participation in the competitive sport of wrestling.

By their very attendance we intend to show that their dedication and their personal degree of sacrifice and discipline will help to attain the goals they desire. We are looking to showcase their talents to college coaches so that those who choose to continue in the sport may obtain college scholarships and become the leaders of tomorrow.

No part of the net earnings of this organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth herein. No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and this corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of this corporation, assets remaining shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
