RELEASE OF LLC NAME TO MYSELF

On 9-12-2016 an LLC was created by myself for Central Florida Search and Recovery, LLC, under L16000170060.

On 9-20-2016 I filed for dissolution of the same LLC, since it was created in error and should have been filed as a corporation.

Enclosed are copies of my cover letter and articles of incorporation for Central Florida Search and Recovery Corporation.

Please release the name to myself so that the correct filing can be created.

Thank you.

PURPOSE

Central Florida Search and Recovery Corporation is a not-for-profit organization located in Central Florida. Our mission is to provide high quality specialized canine and mounted search and recovery resources at no charge to local, county, state, and national agencies.

Our team will be committed to enhancing our skills through training and continuing education from numerous credible resources. Currently we have canines certified in the following areas: Non Scent Discriminating Wilderness Air Scent, Trailing, and Human Remains Detection. All new canine teams and mounted teams will adhere to a high level of internal and external standards thus building a quality deployable resource pool.

To educate the public and help fund our mission by purchasing required equipment, insurance, and external training, we host fund raisers and public relation events. These events and public donations provide the funding stream to help continue with our mission.
