issue certificates of stock or declare dividends. The balance, if any, of all money and other assets received by the Corporation, after the payment in full of all debts and obligations of the Corporation of whatsoever kind and nature, shall be used and distributed exclusively for carrying out only the purposes of the Corporation as particularly set forth in Article II. Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Articles of Incorporation as may be amended from time to time or the Corporation's Bylaws, the Corporation shall neither have nor exercise any power nor shall it engage directly or indirectly in any activity that might invalidate its status (a) as a corporation, which is exempt from federal income taxations as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code; or (b) as a corporation contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code.

3. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation; nor shall it in any manner or to any extent participate in or intervene in any political campaign (including the publishing or distribution of statements) on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate of public office; nor shall the Corporation engage in any activities that are unlawful under applicable federal, state, or local laws.

ARTICLE V - BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The powers of this Corporation shall be exercised, its properties controlled, and its affairs conducted by a Board of Directors consisting of no less than three (3) directors. The number of directors herein provided for may be changed in accordance with the Bylaws of the Corporation, but may never be less than three (3) directors. The term of office and the manner of selecting and removing the members of the Board of Directors shall be as set forth in the Corporation's Bylaws. The directors shall be protected from personal liability to the fullest extent permitted by law.

The names and street addresses of the initial members of the first Board of Directors who shall hold office until his or her successor has been duly elected or appointed and has qualified are as follows:

Name	Street Address
Alexander Fundora	7450 Southwest 64th Street Miami, Florida 33143
Maria Calderon	7450 Southwest 64th Street Miami, Florida 33143
Laura Bonet	7450 Southwest 64th Street Miami, Florida 33143

ARTICLE VI - ACTION BY DIRECTORS WITHOUT A MEETING.

Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if all of the Directors consent to such action in writing. Any such action shall be evidenced by one (1) or more written consents (i) describing the action to be taken and (ii) signed by all of the Directors. A consent procured telephonically shall be evidenced by a written confirmation within five (5) days after the consent is given and any such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as if taken by a unanimous vote of the Directors at a meeting. Such consent or consents shall be filed in the corporate book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Board of Directors kept and maintained by the Secretary of the Corporation. The action taken shall be deemed effective when the last Director signs or articulates the consent, unless the consent specifies otherwise. Such notice shall comply with the applicable provisions of the Florida Statutes and the Corporation's By-Laws.

ARTICLE VII – NO PERSONAL LIABILITY; INDEMNIFICATION

No officer or director of the Corporation shall be personally liable for the debts or obligations of the Corporation of any nature whatsoever, nor shall any of the property or assets of the officers or directors be subject to the payment of the debts or obligations of the Corporation. The Corporation shall indemnify any person who is or was a party, or who is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, including all appeals, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a shareholder, director, officer or employee of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the company as a shareholder, director, manager, officer or employee of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, limited liability company or other enterprise, to the fullest extent permitted by law.

ARTICLE VIII - DISSOLUTION

Upon termination or dissolution of the Corporation, any money and assets lawfully available for distribution, after the payment in full of all debts and obligations of the Corporation of whatsoever kind and nature, shall be distributed for one (1) or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, which organization or organizations have a charitable purpose which, at least generally, includes a purpose similar to the Corporation. The organization to receive the assets of the Corporation hereunder shall be selected by the Board of Directors, provided, however, that if it is not selected by the Board of Directors for any reason, then the recipient organization shall be selected pursuant to a verified petition in equity filed in a court of proper jurisdiction against the Corporation by any member of the Board of Directors which verified petition shall contain such statements as reasonably necessary to indicate the applicability of this Article. The court, upon a finding that this section is applicable, shall select the qualifying organization or organizations to receive the assets to be distributed, giving preference, if practicable, to organizations located within the State of Florida, Miami-Dade County. In the event that the court shall find that this Article is applicable but that there is no qualifying organization known to it which has a charitable purpose, which, at least generally, includes a purpose similar to the Corporation, then the court shall direct the distribution of its assets lawfully available for distribution to the Treasurer of the State of Florida to be added to the general fund.

ARTICLE IX – AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

The Corporation's Articles of Incorporation may be amended by the affirmative vote of two thirds of the members of the Board of Directors.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned incorporator has made and subscribed these Articles of Incorporation at Coral Gables, Florida, for the uses and purposes aforesaid, this 23rd day of September, 2016.
