The More Than a Scholar Foundation Inc. will only engage in activities with charitable and/or educational purposes, included, for said purposes, the giving to other organizations that qualify as tax exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or equivalent section of any future tax code defined by the federal government.

No fraction of the net income of the foundation will be dedicated to the benefit of its members, officers, trustees, or other private persons, except in the event that a reasonable, authorized pay is made in compensation for services which further the not-for-profit purposes defined in Article III of the Articles of Incorporation.

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code¹

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.²
