The following Articles set forth all of the operative provisions of the Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of the corporation is EDUCATE A CURE CORPORATION.

ARTICLE II. DURATION

The period of its duration is perpetual.

ARTICLE III. PURPOSE

This corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes. The primary purpose of the corporation will be to educate people about disease, illness, and disability.

ARTICLE IV. POWERS

This corporation shall have and may exercise, consistent with its purposes, the powers enumerated for Non-Profit Corporations at RCW 24.03.035.

ARTICLE V. MEMBERSHIP - STOCK

The corporation shall not issue any shares of stock, but it may confer upon its' constituents the status of "Member." The initial persons named on the Board of Directors in Article VII herein, are hereby declared to be members for one year from the date of incorporation. The Bylaws of the corporation shall set forth the requirements and privileges of membership for all persons desiring to be members, including those who are named herein but who desire to remain as members after the one-year period expires.

ARTICLE VI. REGISTERED OFFICE AND AGENT

AND CONSENT OF REGISTERED AGENT

The address of the initial registered office of the corporation shall be 3191 Grand Avenue #391, Miami, FL 33233. The name of the initial registered agent of the corporation at such address shall be JENEVIEVE FISHER, who agrees and consents, by signing these Articles of Incorporation as the incorporator or one of the incorporators, to serve as the registered agent in the State of Florida for EDUCATE A CURE CORPORATION. Said agent further understands and agrees that her signature below as incorporator evidences her appointment as agent for the corporation, being responsible to receive service of process in the name of the corporation; to forward all mail addressed to her as agent for the corporation to the corporation at the corporation's last known address; and to immediately notify the office of the Secretary of State of Florida in the event of her resignation, or of any changes in the registered office address of the corporation for which she is agent.

ARTICLE VII. PROVISIONS FOR REGULATION

AND CONDUCT OF THE AFFAIRS OF THE CORPORATION:

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The affairs of this corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors, which shall have such officers as are set out in the Bylaws of the corporation and elected by said Board of Directors. There shall be not less than three (3) Directors, and the qualifications, terms of office, manner of election, time and place of meetings, and powers and duties of the Directors shall be as are prescribed in the Bylaws of the corporation.

The number of Directors constituting the initial Board of the corporation shall be three (3). The names and address of the persons who are to serve as the initial Directors of the corporation are as follows:

ARTICLE VIII. TRANSACTIONS INVOLVING DIRECTORS

1. No contracts or other transactions between this corporation and any other corporation, and no act of this corporation shall in any way be affected or invalidated by the fact that any Director of this corporation is pecuniarily or otherwise interested in, or is a Director or officer of such other corporation.
2. Any Director, individually, or any firm of which any Director may be a member, may be a party to, or may be pecuniarily or otherwise interested in, any contracts or transactions of the corporation; provided, that the fact that such Director or such firm is so interested shall be disclosed to or shall have been known by the Board of Directors or a majority thereof.

ARTICLE IX. DIRECTOR LIABILITY

A Director of the corporation shall not be personally liable to the corporation for monetary damages for conduct as a Director, except for liability of the Director for (i) acts or omissions that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law by the Director, (ii) conduct which violates RCW 23B.08.310 of the Florida Business Corporation Act, pertaining to unpermitted distributions or loans to Directors, or (iii) any transaction from which the Director will personally receive a benefit in money, property, or services to which the Director is not legally entitled. If the Florida Business Corporation Act is amended to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of Directors, then the liability of a Director of the corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Florida Business Corporation Act. Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the Directors of the corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a Director of the corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE X. INDEMNIFICATION

The corporation shall indemnify its Directors and officers against all liability, damage, or expense resulting from the fact that such person is or was a Director or officer, to the maximum extent and under all circumstances permitted by law; except that the corporation shall not indemnify a Director against liability, damage, or expense resulting from the Director's gross negligence.

ARTICLE XI. PROHIBITION OF PERSONAL BENEFITS

No private person, officer, or Director of this corporation shall accede to or in any way, directly or indirectly, receive any benefit or profit or distribution of property or distribution of income from this corporation, provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the payment in good faith of reasonable compensation to any officers, private persons, or Directors, or to any employees in return for services actually rendered and for actual expenses incurred in furtherance of the purposes hereof.

ARTICLE XII. PROHIBITION OF POLITICAL ACTIVITIES

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be devoted to carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, or for the purpose of participating in, or intervening in, any political campaign (including publication or distribution of statements) on behalf of any candidate for public office.

ARTICLE XIII. ULTIMATE DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS

AND LIQUIDATION OR DISSOLUTION

In the event that this corporation by and through its Board of Directors or through some other determination shall be deemed incapable of continuing to fulfill or serve its purposes, all of its assets shall be distributed to non-profit funds, foundations, or corporations, which have established their tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and which are of similar purpose. In no event, upon dissolution, shall any officer or Director enjoy personal benefit from the assets of this organization.

ARTICLE XIV. PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a corporation contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).
