As part of the donation process, in addition to any specific donation requests, the donor will also provide a general charitable donation category so that in the event the specific donation request cannot be made, then CGC will otherwise distribute or utilize the funds for the general charitable purpose requested by the donor. Ultimately, as a condition of receiving the donation, CGC will have the authority to allocate donations to causes as CGC sees fit.

To maximize CGC's ability to help fund the charitable efforts of individuals and micro-ministries that are not otherwise affiliated with a 501(c)(3), CGC may seek to collaborate with other not-for-profit organizations that fall under the 501(c)(3) section of the Internal Revenue Code and are operated exclusively for benevolent, educational and charitable purposes.

At times, per the discretion of the board of directors, the corporation may provide internships or volunteer opportunities which will provide opportunities for involvement in said activities and programs in order to have a greater impact for change.
