ARTICLE 3

The Corporation shall make no distribution of income to its members, directors or officers.

ARTICLE 4

The powers of the Corporation shall include and be governed by the following provisions:

1. The Corporation shall have all of the common law and statutory powers of a corporation not for profit not in conflict with the terms of these Articles.
2. The Corporation shall have all of the powers and duties set forth in the Act except as limited by these Articles and the Declaration of Condominium, and all of the powers and duties reasonably necessary to operate the Condominium pursuant to the Declaration, as it may be amended from time to time, including but not limited to the following:

4. The powers of the Corporation shall be subject to and shall be exercised in accordance with the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium and the By-Laws.

ARTICLE 5

The qualifications of members, the manner of their admission to membership, termination of such membership and voting by members shall be as follows:

1. All Unit Owners shall be members of the Corporation, and no other persons or entities shall be entitled to membership, except as provided in Paragraph 5 of Article 5 hereof.

2. Membership shall be established by the acquisition of title to a Unit in the Condominium, whether by conveyance, devise, judicial decree or otherwise, and the membership of any party shall be automatically terminated upon his being divested of all title to the Unit, except that nothing herein contained shall be construed as terminating the membership of any party who may own two or more Units, so long as such party shall retain title to a Unit.

3. The interest of a member in the funds and assets of the Corporation cannot be assigned, hypothecated or transferred in any manner, except as an appurtenance to the Unit. The funds and assets of the Corporation shall belong solely to the Corporation, subject to the limitation that the same be expended, held or used for the benefit of the membership and for the purposes authorized herein, in the Declaration of Condominium, and in the By-Laws which may be hereafter adopted.

4. On all matters on which the membership shall be entitled to vote, each Unit shall have that number of votes set forth in the Declaration, but all such votes must be cast in the same manner (e.g. if a Unit has 50 votes, it must cast the 50 votes as if it were one vote, but for purposes of determining approval, the weight will be that of 50 votes). The votes of a Unit may be exercised or cast by the owner or owners of each Unit in such manner as may be provided in the By-Laws hereafter adopted by the Corporation. Should any member own more than one Unit, such member shall be entitled to execute or cast as many votes as apply to his Units (and may vote differently the votes of each Unit), in the manner provided by said By-Laws.

ARTICLE 6

The Corporation shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE 7

The affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by the President of the Corporation, assisted by the Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer, and, if any, the Assistant Secretaries and Assistant Treasurers, subject to the directions of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors, or the President, with the approval of the Board of Directors, may employ a Managing Agent and/or such other managerial and supervisory personnel or entities to administer or assist in the administration of the operation and management of the Condominium, and the affairs of the Corporation, and any such person or entity may be so employed without regard to whether such person or entity is a member of

ARTICLE 8

1. The number of members of the first Board of Directors of the Corporation shall be three (3). The number of members of succeeding Boards of Directors shall be as provided from time to time by the By-Laws of the Corporation. The members of the Board of Directors shall be elected by the members of the Corporation at the Annual Meeting of the membership as provided by the By-Laws of the Corporation, and need not be members of the Corporation. The rights reserved to the Developer under this Article 8 (2) shall only apply to units owned by the Developer.

3. The qualifications for membership in the Board of Directors and the manner in which vacancies in the Board shall be filled shall be as set forth in the Bylaws of the Association, subject however to the right of each unit owner to fill any vacancy created in the Board of Directors by the death, resignation or removal of a Director elected by such unit owner with another Director elected by the same unit owner.

4. At the time the unit owners, other than the Developer, elect a majority of the member of the Board of Directors, the Developer shall relinquish control of the Association and the unit owners shall accept control. At such time, the Developer shall deliver to the Association those items required by the Act.

ARTICLE 9

The Board of Directors shall elect a President, Secretary and Treasurer; and, as many Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries and Assistant Treasurers as the Board of Directors may determine. The President shall be elected from among the membership of the Board of Directors, but no other officer need be a Director.
