Replace Article III in its entirety to read:

This corporation is organized exclusively to promote charitable giving through educational and program awareness within government and private sector employee workplace campaigns. To build confidence in giving and improving the relationship between donors and charities through high standards of operation and credibility, which we will improve our community's human, health, and welfare environment in providing Better Way Opportunities.

To this end, the corporation shall at all times be operated exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as now enacted or hereafter amended, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. All funds, whether income or principal, and whether acquired by gift or contribution or otherwise, shall be devoted to said purpose.

At all times shall the following operate as conditions of the operations and activities of the Corporation:

- (A) To promote the interests of the Corporation in a manner consistent with charitable purposes within the meaning of 501(c)(3) through education and awareness planning;
- (B) To make gifts or contributions in furtherance of the Corporation's purposes;
- (C) To receive and administer funds and contributions received by gift, deed, bequest, or devise, and otherwise to acquire money, securities, properties, rights, and services of every kind and description and to hold, invest, expend, contribute, use, sell, or otherwise dispose of money, securities, property, rights or services so acquired, for the purpose mentioned;
- (D) In addition to the foregoing, the Corporation shall have all powers that may be conferred by the laws of Florida and under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as now existing or hereafter, upon not-for-profit corporations;
 - (i) No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth within.

(ii) No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

(iii) Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

DURATION: The duration of the corporate existence shall be perpetual.

PERSONAL LIABILITY: No (member) Officer or Director of this corporation shall be personally liable for the debts or obligations of this corporation of any nature whatsoever, nor shall any of the property of the (members) officer, or Directors be subject to the payment of the debts or obligations of this corporation.

DISSOLUTION: Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
