Articles of Incorporation of
FLORIDA COUNSELING ASSOCIATION FOUNDATION, INC.

16 NOV -7 PM 2: 26

Article I: Name

The name of the corporation Not for Profit shall be FLORIDA COUNSELING ASSOCIATION FOUNDATION, INC. (hereinafter referred to as the "Corporation").

Article II: Duration

The Corporation shall have perpetual existence.

Article III: Purposes and Powers

3.1 A. Nonprofit Corporation. The Corporation is not organized for profit; it shall have no capital stock and shall not be authorized to issue capital stock.

B. Purposes. The Corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for charitable, scientific, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, including, but not limited to, for such purposes the making of distributions to organizations that qualify under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

C. To carry on such other activities that are in furtherance of and in support of the foregoing purposes as are lawful and proper for corporations formed under the Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act and Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

3.2 Subject only to such limitations as now or hereafter are prescribed by law or in the Corporation's Articles of Incorporation, the powers of the Corporation shall be as provided in the bylaws of the Corporation in accordance with Chapter 617, Florida Statutes. The Corporation shall have all powers which now or hereafter are conferred by law upon a corporation organized for the purposes previously stated in this Article III or are necessary or incidental to the powers so conferred.

Article IV: Limitations

4.1 No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles of incorporation, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from the federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code; or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Code.

4.2 Upon the dissolution of the corporation, its assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Article V: Members

5.1 The Corporation shall have members. The classes of membership, rights, obligations, duties and powers of the members are as set out in the bylaws of the Corporation.

Article VI: Directors

6.1 Subject to the provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, the powers, duties, qualifications, terms of office, manner and time of election, and criteria for removal of directors shall be as set forth in the Bylaws of the Corporation.

6.2 There shall be seven directors of the Corporation. Three of the directors shall consist of the President, current Past President and current President elect of the Florida Counseling Association, Inc. who occupy those positions at the time of election of the directors of this Corporation. Four of the directors of this Corporation shall consist of four persons elected by the Membership of the Florida Counseling Association, Inc. These four directors will serve no more than two, 3 year terms.

6.3 Directors of this Corporation, and any Officers elected by the Directors of this Corporation, shall serve in their capacity as such without compensation except for reimbursement for actual expenses. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if an individual elected as a board member or officer is also a salaried employee of the Corporation, the individual may receive reasonable compensation as a salaried employee (and not as a director) in accordance with procedures adopted by the Board and in accordance the Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act and the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, which procedures shall be administered by an independent Compensation Committee appointed by the Board in accordance with procedures set out in the Bylaws.

Article VII: Director Liability Limitations

7.1 If the Florida Not For Profit Corporations Act is hereafter amended to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors or officers, then the
