ARTICLE III PURPOSE

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is:

Section 1. The Corporation is organized as a not-for-profit corporation exclusively for charitable, social, educational and cultural purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (or any corresponding provision of any future federal tax code) (the "Code").

Section 2. Without limiting the generality of the purposes specified in Section 1 above, the specific purposes of the Corporation shall be to:

- a) inspire and nurture a love for theatre in Northeast Florida;
- b) educate and challenge a diverse community with theatrical productions of new and classic plays and musicals; and
- c) train and support aspiring theatre artists of all ages, genders and ethnicities through exposure to and involvement with theatrical experiences.

Section 3. In carrying out its purposes, the Corporation may receive gifts and grants of money or property, invest and reinvest assets and funds, collect income and disburse funds to any person or organization, public or private. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no part of the net earnings of this Corporation or the assets of this Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the Statement of Purpose hereof. The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to those purposes and no part of the net income or assets of this corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any director, officer, or member thereof, or to the benefits of any private individual.

Section 4. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles of Incorporation to the contrary, the Corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, or by any organization contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of such Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

Section 5. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation.
