SUBJECT: TEACH THEM YOUNGER LLC
Ref. Number: W16000079071

We have received your document for TEACH THEM YOUNGER LLC and your check(s) totaling $78.75. However, the enclosed document has not been filed and is being returned for the following correction(s):

The name must contain a word that will clearly indicate that it is a corporation. This word may be: CORPORATION; CORP., INCORPORATED, or INC. Sections 617.0401(1)(a) and 617.1506(1), Florida Statutes, prohibits the use of the word COMPANY or CO. in the name of a non-profit corporation.

If your business entity does not intend to transact business until January 1st of the upcoming calendar year, you may wish to revise your document to include an effective date of January 1st. If you do not list an effective date of January 1st, your business entity will become effective this calendar year and it will be required to file an annual report and pay the required annual report fee for the upcoming calendar year this coming January, which is merely weeks away. By listing an effective date of January 1st, the entity's existence will not begin until January 1st of the upcoming year and will, therefore, postpone the entity's requirement to file an annual report and pay the required annual report filing fee until the following calendar year.

Please return the corrected original and one copy of your document, along with a copy of this letter, within 60 days or your filing will be considered abandoned.

If you have any questions concerning the filing of your document, please call (850) 245-6052.

Articles of Incorporation

In Compliance with Pursuant to Chapter 617 F.S., Not for Profit

ARTICLE 1

The name of the Corporation is TeachThemYoungER Inc.

ARTICLE 2

DURATION

The duration of the corporate existence shall be perpetual commencing January 1, 2017.

ARTICLE 3

PURPOSE OF CORPORATION

TeachThemYoungER Inc. is organized exclusively charitable, educational, and public benefit, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. TeachThemYoungER Inc. dedicated to bringing communities together to focus on the success of families and children. This grassroots movement will engage businesses, human service agencies, sports organizations, and parent groups to meet the needs of our communities, now and in the future.

PURPOSE IN DETAIL

Athletic Programs:

Our athletics programs promote the participation of children of all age groups and levels of experience. We emphasize Sportsmanship, Relationships and Teamwork. The purpose is to build positive relationships with their peers through team sports and other activities that build trust. We will help provide participants services such as sports training, academics and application assistance for further education. We understand that there are many factors that families must consider before enrolling a child in any extracurricular program. In order to help parents make informed decisions regarding their child's involvement in youth athletics, we will provide overviews which include program descriptions, target registration population, estimated time commitments and sports' seasons. We will participate in outreach to parents and student-athletes by either in person gatherings or online webinars. We currently have 3 sports that we will start with; Basketball, Soccer, and Cricket. Our programs bridge borders by working with other sports teams across the Caribbean, South America and all of North America.

Wellness Program

Our wellness program will comprise of educating families, and single parent households, on the benefits of healthy eating on a budget and family oriented exercise programs. We will work on helping youth understand and cope with family and relationships through group sessions and seminars. We will give tools that help families communicate better and learn ways to cope in stressful situations. Our focus will be tailoring the delivery of these tools by either in person gatherings or online webinars. We will hold lunchtime stress management seminars that address items such as; sleep to work-life balance; programs to help employees quit smoking; cooking classes; healthy recipe exchanges; fitness challenges; or weight loss initiatives and competitions.

Financial Management Program

This program offers money management assistance to help low-income families who have difficulty budgeting, paying routine bills, and keeping track of financial matters. The program's goal is to promote and prolong positive living for individuals who are at risk of falling deeper into financial crisis due to inability to manage their financial affairs. We will provide the tools necessary to improve their financial wellness. Whether you are looking to hone your existing financial skills, or find a solution to a specific financial dilemma. The program is designed to empower family leaders and our youth to have fiscal responsibility and accountability. Our focus will be tailoring the delivery of these tools by either in person gatherings or online webinars. We will help participants:

- Figure out how to get your bills paid on time
- Build your savings account for emergencies
- Reduce your expenses and increase your income
- Set goals for a prosperous future and start working toward that future
- Create a spending plan

In addition, we will help homeless families with children the hope and opportunity to achieve self-sufficiency through supportive services and transitional housing

Media Arts Program

Our Media Arts program promotes youth involvement in media arts and emerging technologies for use in self-expression, communication, and social change. We will build self-esteem and critical thinking skills for youth typically neglected by policy makers and mass media. Using video production, computer art, and the Internet, young people address community issues, access advanced technology, and gain inclusion in our information-based society. The program is designed to empower young people to:

- Become aware of—and think critically about—media's role in influencing choices.
- Build skills that help them make informed decisions about being a responsible functioning positive member of society.
- Establish healthy habits, positive relationship building techniques and career skills that will last into adulthood.
- Learn about media and create their own media products to educate their peers.

Participants can contact the organization, or be referred from a community agency. These Programs will be initiated in 2017 and the services are available 5 hours a day from Monday to Friday; 7 available hours on Saturday and Sunday.
