ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
TABERNÁCULO DE AVIVAMIENTO OF DUVAL COUNTY, INC.,
A CORPORATION NOT-FOR-PROFIT

FILED
SECRETARY OF STATE
DIVISION OF CORPORATIONS
2016 NOV 23 PM 2:15

The undersigned incorporator to these Articles of Incorporation adopts these Articles to form a corporation under the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act, Florida Statutes Chapter 617 ("Act"), and other laws of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE I
NAME

The name of the corporation is TABERNÁCULO DE AVIVAMIENTO OF DUVAL COUNTY, INC.

ARTICLE II
PRINCIPAL OFFICE

The principal street address of the corporation shall be 2980 Hartley Road W., Suite 5, Jacksonville, Florida 32257 and the mailing address of the corporation shall be 6303 Morse Oaks Circle, Jacksonville, Florida 32244.

ARTICLE III
PURPOSE

Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

The corporation is authorized to engage in any and all lawful activities incidental to the foregoing purposes, except as restricted herein, including:

(a) To accept, hold, invest, reinvest and administer any gifts, bequests, devises, and property of any sort, without limitation as to amount of value, and to use, disburse, or donate the income or principal thereof for the purposes listed above.

(b) In general, to carry on other legal activity or activities not specifically prohibited to nonprofit corporations under the laws of the State of Florida so long as such activities are permissible to tax-exempt corporations and private foundations under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of the United States.

The corporation shall neither have nor exercise any power, nor shall it engage directly or indirectly in any activity that would invalidate its status as a corporation which is exempt from Federal income taxation as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

The corporation is not organized and shall not be operated for pecuniary gain or profit. No part of the property of the corporation and no part of its earnings shall inure to the benefit of any officer or director of the corporation or other private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the corporation affecting one [1] or more of its purposes), and no member, director or officer of the corporation, or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the corporation. The corporation shall not engage in propaganda, attempt to influence legislation, or participate in any manner in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office, nor shall any part of its property or any part of the income therefrom be devoted to such purposes.

The corporation shall distribute its income for each tax year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of the United States, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

The corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of the United States, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

The corporation shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of the United States, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

The corporation shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under Section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code of the United States, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

The corporation shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of the United States, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, the corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of the United States and the regulations of the Treasury Department as they now exist or may hereafter be amended, or by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of such code and regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

Upon the dissolution of the corporation or the winding up of its affairs, the assets of the corporation remaining, after payment or provision for payment of all debts and liabilities of the corporation shall be distributed exclusively to charitable, religious, scientific, literary, or educational organizations which would then qualify under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the equivalent provision thereof, and the regulations thereunder, as they may then exist, with the specific organizations to which such funds are distributed, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose.

The corporation shall have all of the rights and powers customary or proper for charitable corporations, as well as those specifically set forth herein. It may receive donations and agree upon the conditions thereof with donors for the purposes within those purposes stated in these Articles. It may from time-to-time invest the funds of the corporation in such property, real, personal, tangible and intangible, as the officers and directors may in their discretion determine. It may buy, own, hold, manage, lease and sell, real and personal property, stocks, bonds, evidences of indebtedness, other choses in action, and undivided interest in any of the foregoing. It may purchase and sell as provided in these Articles for either public or private sale, without order of any court or other authority. It may act through and by agents, and it may act as agent for others. It may act as trustee for gifts and trusts for purposes included within these Articles.

The corporation shall have the power to appoint a fiscal agent, such as a bank or trust company doing business in the Jacksonville area of Florida, and may delegate to such agent the care and management, investment and reinvestment of its funds, and the maintenance of its books and records, and may pay to such agent such compensation as may be agreed upon by the Board of Directors and General Staff.

Unless otherwise required by the terms of any contribution to the corporation, the corporation shall have the power, in its discretion, to retain all contributions in the original form in which they may have been received.

ARTICLE IV MANNER OF ELECTION

The manner in which the directors are elected and appointed is provided in the bylaws.

ARTICLE V INITIAL OFFICERS AND/OR DIRECTORS

The initial officer(s) and/or director(s) of the corporation is:

ANDREW B. MILLER
President/Secretary/Director
6303 Morse Oaks Circle
Jacksonville, Florida 32244

ARTICLE VI REGISTERED AGENT

The name and Florida street address of the registered agent is:
