ARTICLE III PURPOSE:

The purpose for which this corporation is organized is:

This nonprofit corporation is organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, educational and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE IV MANNER OF ELECTION:

The manner in which the directors are elected and appointed:

The Board of Directors shall conduct all the business of the corporation and shall be the only voting members of the corporation, except as otherwise specifically provided in the Bylaws. The number of directors, the qualifications of directors, and the manner of their admission shall be as set forth in the Bylaws.

ADD ARTICLE IX:

The private property of the directors and members, if any, shall be non-assessable and shall not be subject to the payment of any corporate debts, nor shall the directors or members, if any, of the corporation become individually or corporately liable or responsible for any debts or liabilities of the corporation.

To the fullest extent now or later permitted by the laws of the State of Florida, no director of the corporation shall be personally liable to the corporation or its members, if any, for monetary damages for any act or omission in such director's capacity as a director, except that this Article does not authorize the elimination or limitation of the liability of a director; (i) for a breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its members, if any; (ii) for an act or omission not in good faith or that involves intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law; or (iii) for a transaction from which the director received an improper personal benefit.

Any repeal or amendment of this Article or repeal or amendment of the applicable laws of the State of Florida shall be prospective only with respect to the limitations on liability conveyed, and shall not adversely affect any limitation on the personal liability of a director of the corporation existing at the time of such repeal or amendment.

ADD ARTICLE X:

(A) No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth hereof.

(B) No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

(C) Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(D) Upon dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the court of jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ADD ARTICLE XI:

These Articles may be amended at any regular meeting of the Board of Directors, or at a special meeting called for that purpose, by a two-thirds (2/3) majority.
