WASHINGTON, Jan. 3, 2023 /PRNewswire/ -- The National Association of Health Underwriters (NAHU), the preeminent organization for health insurance and employee benefits professionals, announced today that it is rebranding as the National Association of Benefits and Insurance Professionals (NABIP). For decades, NABIP has advocated on behalf of benefits and insurance professionals so all Americans can be empowered to make wise healthcare and benefits decisions. The association leads state-based and federal advocacy efforts on behalf of its membership, ranging from Fortune 500 companies to small businesses and individuals seeking health insurance.

"Our decades-long commitment to our members and their clients is at the core of what we do and who we are, and that commitment will never change. We are excited to adopt the new name National Association of Benefits and Insurance Professionals as a clear reflection of our organization's evolution and role in helping our members navigate the ever-evolving health insurance and benefits marketplace," said NABIP CEO Janet Trautwein. "Looking forward, our new identity will better represent our expanded membership and resonate with members of this growing industry."
