ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of the corporation is:

ARTICLE III. PURPOSES

The corporation is organized exclusively for religious, religious charitable, and religious educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law, referred to herein as the "Code"), including but not limited to glorifying God the Father, Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit, as individuals psychologically and spiritually renew their minds, achieve their God-given potential, and live fully transformed lives (Romans 12:2) of joy, peace, forgiveness, freedom, meaning, purpose, and fulfillment, in part by establishing one or more mental health facilities intended to be classified as a hospital pursuant to Section 170(b)(1)(A)(iii) of the Code, as well as making distributions to or for the use of organizations exempt at the time under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. Section 3. Contingent Provision. If any such assets are not so disposed of, and to the extent that the directors become deadlocked regarding this or any other issue, any such dispute shall be settled by the independent director, except that any recipient of corporate assets must agree unreservedly with the corporation's Statement of Faith.

ARTICLE X. CONTINGENT RESTRICTIONS
