- 2) You did not include a complete copy of your organizing document as required. We enclosed a copy of your organizing document from your state of incorporation's website, which is open for public inspection, with this letter and made it part of your file. If you believe this is not a correct copy of your organizing document, please let us know with your response to this letter and submit a copy of the correct document.
- 3) Your organizing document does not meet the organizational test of IRC Section 501(c)(3). To meet these requirements, you must amend your organizing document to include an adequate dissolution clause then sign below to verify you completed the amendment. The following is an example of an acceptable dissolution clause:

Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

See page 7 of the Instructions for Form 1023 at www.irs.gov for more details and examples of specific language that meets the requirements. A corporation must file an amendment with the appropriate state agency.

Note: You don't need to submit a copy of your amendment.

We amended our organizing document as indicated to include the above provision or other substantially similar wording that meet the requirements of Section 501(c)(3).
