ARTICLE 3. PURPOSES

3.1 Purposes

The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes, within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), including, without limitation, making grants to other organization that are tax exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

3.2 Limitations

3.2.1 Nonprofit Status

The corporation shall not have or issue shares of stock. The corporation is not organized for profit, and no part of its net earnings shall inure to the benefit of any Director or officer of the corporation, or any private individual, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation to its Directors or officers for services rendered, and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes of the corporation and subject to the limitations of Sections 3.2.2 and 3.2.3 of these Articles of Incorporation.

3.2.2 Distributions; Dissolution

No Director or officer of the corporation, or any private individual, shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets upon dissolution of the corporation or the winding up of its affairs. Upon such dissolution or winding up, after paying or making adequate provision for the payment of all the liabilities of the corporation, all the remaining assets of the corporation shall be distributed by the Directors of the corporation (the "Board of Directors"), for a purpose or purposes similar to those set forth in Section 3.1 of these Articles of Incorporation, to any other organization that then qualifies for exemption under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Superior Court of Broward County, Florida, exclusively for a Section 501(c)(3) of the Code purpose or purposes similar to those set forth in Section 3.1 of these Articles of Incorporation, or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, that are organized and operated for similar Section 501(c)(3) of the Code purposes.

3.2.3 Prohibited Activity

(a) No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be devoted to attempting to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise, except to the extent that an organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code can engage in such activities without incurring any penalties, excise taxes or losing its status as an organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. The corporation shall not, directly or indirectly, participate in or intervene in (including by the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.
