ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

NEW HOPE CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP, INC.

The undersigned incorporator to these Articles of Incorporation hereby subscribes these Articles of Incorporation to form a corporation (the "Corporation") not-for-profit under the Florida Not-for-Profit Corporation Act and other laws of the State of Florida (Florida Statutes Chapter 617).

ARTICLE IName and Address

The name of the Corporation is NEW HOPE CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP, INC. The street address of the initial principal office is 701 Beach Drive NE, St. Petersburg FL 33701. The mailing address is 701 Beach Drive NE, St. Petersburg FL 33701. The Board of Directors may from time to time change the principal office or mailing address of the Corporation to any other address in the State of Florida.

ARTICLE IIPurposes

The purposes for which the Corporation is formed are exclusively religious, educational and charitable within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law (the "Code") and the purposes of the Corporation are limited exclusively to the educational and charitable purposes set forth below. In carrying out such purposes, this Corporation shall have all of the powers and authorities granted by statute and law, including the power and authority to accept gifts, devise and other contributions for educational and charitable purposes, to hold and administer the funds and properties received and to expend, contribute and otherwise dispose of funds or properties for educational and charitable purposes either directly or by contribution to other Section 501(c)(3) organizations organized and operated exclusively for educational and charitable purposes; provided, however, said powers and authorities shall be exercised only in furtherance of religious, educational and charitable purposes.

The primary purposes of this Corporation are:

- (a) To disseminate the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the Word of God, to the end that people may come to believe in Jesus Christ and be conformed to His image.
- (b) To regularly assemble together for fellowship one with another in corporate worship and in small groups in houses and other places, to worship God in Spirit and in truth and to cooperate in the building up of the whole Body of Christ.
- (c) To involve every participant of this Church in its fellowship and activities and in the ministry of the Holy Spirit throughout the Body of Christ.

(d) To act with charitable concern for and to help all people in need of any help which this Church can give, regardless of race, gender, social position, sexual orientation, or religious affiliation; and to develop and carry out programs of social action for poor, hungry, homeless, afflicted, imprisoned, or underprivileged persons.

(e) To equip believers to fulfill their respective functions as members of the Body of Christ and to bring the whole Body of Christ to unity, maturity and completion. (Ephesians 4:11-16).

(f) To assist in the establishment and maintenance of other churches or other institutions, and to send forth and maintain ministers, missionaries or other workers for the establishment and building up of such churches, or institutions, either domestic or foreign..

ARTICLE III

Powers

The Corporation shall have the power, either directly or indirectly, either alone or in conjunction or in cooperation with others, to do any and all lawful acts and things and to engage in any and all lawful activities which may be necessary, useful, desirable, suitable or proper for the furtherance, accomplishment, fostering or attainment of any or all of the purposes for which the Corporation is organized, and to aid or assist other organizations whose activities are such as to further accomplish, foster or attain any of such purposes. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Corporation shall exercise only such powers as are set forth in furtherance of the exempt purposes of organizations set forth in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and its regulations as the same now exist or as they may be hereafter amended from time to time.

ARTICLE IV

Board of Directors

Amendments to these Articles of Incorporation may be made by the Board of Directors upon a two-thirds (2/3) vote of all of the members of the Board of Directors at a meeting duly called in accordance with the Bylaws of the Corporation.

ARTICLE X

Limitations on Actions

All of the assets and earnings of the Corporation shall be used exclusively for the exempt purposes hereinabove set forth, including the payment of expenses incidental thereto. No part of the net earnings shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers or any other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make distributions and payments in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article 3 hereof. No substantial part of the Corporation's activity shall be for the carrying on of a program of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in or interfere with (including the publication or distribution of statements regarding) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or any organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code. The Corporation shall have no capital stock, pay no dividends, or distribute any part of its net income or assets to any members, Directors or officers.

Although the Corporation is not intended to be a private foundation, as defined in Section 509(a) of the Code, without limitation of the generality of the foregoing paragraph, during such time as the Corporation may be determined to be a private foundation, it shall not:

- (i) fail to distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Code;
- (ii) engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Code;
- (iii) retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code;
- (iv) make any investment in such manner as to subject it to tax under Section 4944 of the Code; or
- (v) make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code.

ARTICLE XI

Dissolution

Upon dissolution of the Corporation, all of its assets remaining after payment of or provision for all liabilities of the Corporation, including costs and expenses of such dissolution, shall be utilized exclusively for the exempt purposes of the Corporation or distributed to an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) or 170(c)(2) of the Code, as shall be selected by the last Board of Directors. None of the assets will be distributed to any member, officer or Director of this Corporation. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the circuit court of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE XII
Term of Existence

The Corporation shall have perpetual existence.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned incorporator executed these Articles of Incorporation this 5 day of May, 2017.
