ARTICLE III:

The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

ARK FREEDOM AMERICA INC is organized exclusively for charitable, scientific, educational and promotional purposes of cultural nature.

The purposes of this Corporation, among others, should be to support and conduct non-partisan research, education, promotional and informational activities to increase general public awareness of how the general culture shape the daily life of every citizen and the social economical and political matrix that can improve or worsen their lives.

We specially will promote a Culture based in the freedom and responsibilities of the individuals and the groups that they freely choose to form, living harmonically and peacefully under the rule of law. Will promote a Culture that is based and cultivates the ideals of the rule of law, individual freedom and responsibility, freedom of enterprise, property rights, and a social solidarity based on morality and fraternity and not on the coercion of the government. In short, we will promote a Culture that defends and continues the proven superior values of free societies created in America and other nations such as Western Europe.

We especially wish to unmask all pseudo-cultural activities which, under different disguises such as democracy, liberation of the poors, females and other minotities, egalitarianism, state paternalism, anti-capitalism, criticism of private enterprise and property, etc, are in fact only promoting obsolete and proven wrong ideals. Some that only lead to totalitarianism, authoritarianism, chaos, social and economic decay.
