The purposes of this Non-Profit Organization are the following:

1. To establish a venue that will foster holistic healing through equestrian programming and facilitate a sense of balance within each one of our clients so that their maladies may be curtailed and even corrected. To develop a facility that will exude nature and natural things, for emotional and mental healing.
2. To hire or procure the services of competent person with or without compensation to aid in the purpose of this organization.
3. To rent, lease or purchase buildings, to alter, to repair, or edify such which as may be needed by the organization. To buy vacant land for buildings, alter, develop, build or repair same for the use of the organization and to dispose of same when no longer needed by the organization. To purchase, accept, acquire, wholly or in part, and to any lawful use or purpose, and for upon lawful consideration mortgage and other similar instruments, and any all rights there under and pr operty therein, etc.
4. To take and hold any grant, donation, bequest, or device of real or personal Property, governmental or otherwise, heretofore or hereafter made upon trust, and apply the same, or the income thereof; under the direction of the Trustees or other officers, for the purpose of establishing, maintaining and managing as such religious organization property.
5. To have power to solicit and raise funds by any and all proper and appropriate means, under the subject to the religious Corporation Law, and to receive and disburse such funds or money occurring from offerings, collections, or any other contributions for the general support of such Christian Organization.
6. The purposes for which the Corporation is organized, are exclusively religious, charitable, science, literary, and educational, within the meaning of section 501 (c) 3, of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law.

Articles of Organization

Attachment to Article III: (b) Dissolution Clause, Regulation of Business

METHOD OF DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS IN THE EVENT OF DISSOLUTION

Method of distribution in the event of dissolution, whether said dissolution be voluntary or otherwise follows:

Upon dissolution or other termination of the corporation, no part of the property of the corporation or any of the proceeds shall be distributed to or inure to the benefit of any of the members, trustees, or officers of the corporation. All such property and proceeds, subject to the discharge of valid obligations of the corporation, shall be distributed to any such organizations the board of trustees may direct; provided however, that any transferee organization, at the time of the distribution, shall qualify as an exempt organization under § 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

CONDUCT AND REGULATION OF BUSINESS AFFAIRS

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, officers, or other persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to the corporation and to make payments and distribution in furtherance of the purposes set forth herein.

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office except as authorized under the Internal Revenue Code, as amended.

The Organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended (or by the corresponding provision of any future United States internal Revenue Law,) or (b) by a corporation, contribution to which are deductible under 179 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code as amended (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).
