ARTICLE III - PURPOSE

This corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific and educational purposes; more specifically; to serve, motivate, empower, offer and award scholarships for higher education. To this end, the corporation shall at all times be operated exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now enacted or hereafter amended, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now enacted or hereafter amended. All funds, whether income or principal, and whether acquired by gift or contribution or otherwise, shall be devoted to said purposes. This Corporation shall adhere to any corresponding section of any future federal tax code, to which end the Corporation is specifically authorized to conduct, perform, and undertake any of the following activities:

- a. To produce and present, independently or in collaboration with other institutions or individuals, workshops focusing on the rights of individuals with vision impairments or of a similar nature.
- b. To solicit gifts and donations from public or private individuals, businesses, foundations, and governmental entities in support of one or more of the purposes or activities of the Corporation including but not limited to scholarship programs, workshops, and education.
- c. To collect fees: from registrations, admission to conferences, from instructional classes, lectures, and workshops; and to do these and all other legal things necessary to carry out and fulfill the stated purposes of the Corporation.
- d. To carry on any other lawful business whatsoever that the Corporation may deem appropriate, and to exercise all powers and authorities conferred upon it by the Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act, now in effect or as subsequently amended, provided such activities or exercise of powers is otherwise consistent with the purposes and objectives of the Corporation, as set forth in these Articles of Incorporation.

This foregoing statement of corporate purposes and objectives shall be liberally construed in furtherance of aiding the conduct and operation of the Corporation. No express recital of power or authority shall be construed or interpreted to restrict or limit any general power or authority when such general power or authority is otherwise conferred by these Articles of Incorporation or by applicable corporation law.

ARTICLE VIII - DISSOLUTION

At the time of dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all debts, obligations, liabilities, costs and expenses of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation. In no case shall a disposition be made which would not qualify as a charitable contribution under Section 170(c) (1) or (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now enacted or hereafter amended, in such manner as the Board of Directors shall determine.
